CONTENTS

Foreword by Carl Trueman xiii

1. The Catholicity of the Reformation 1

PART 1:
The Reformation's Catholic Context

2. Spiritual Ascent and Mystical Dissent 35
   The Reformation and Monasticism
3. Faith Seeking Understanding 77
   The Advent of Scholasticism
4. Thomas Aquinas as a "Sounder Scholastic" 114
   The Reformation's Critical Retrieval of Scholasticism
5. Provocation for Reformation 205
   The Via Moderna, Nominalism, and the Late Medieval Departure from the Realism of Thomistic Augustinianism and Its Soteriology
6. From Rebirth to Aberration 284
   The Reformation and Renaissance Humanism
7. The Ecclesiastical Watershed 325
   Conciliarism, Curialism, and the Papacy on the Eve of the Reformation

PART 2:
The Genesis of Reformation

8. Martin Luther as a Late Medieval Man 371
   Luther's Augustinianism, the Via Moderna, and the Papacy
9. Reforming the Reformation 458
   Liturgical Catholicity and Prospects for Renewal
10. From Union to Schism 487
    The Eucharist, the Turks, and the League
11. Protagonists and Protestants 522
    Defining the Center of Reform

PART 3:
The Formation of Reformed Catholicity

12. The Renewal of a Catholic Heritage 553
The Reformation among the Swiss
13. Abandoning Catholicity for Primitive Christianity 608
Radicals and Revolutionaries
14. Constructing a Reformed Church 655
The Reformation in Strasbourg and Geneva
15. Fortifying a Reformed Church 706
The Reformation in Geneva, Berne, and France
16. An Apology for the Universal Church 758
The Reformation in England and Scotland

PART 4:
Counter-Renewal

17. Roman but Catholic? 841
Counter-Reformation, Catholic Renewal, and the Antidote

Conclusion: The One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church 881
Afterword by Timothy George 885
Acknowledgments 887
Abbreviations 889
Bibliography 897
Subject Index 947
Scripture Index 979
Author Index 981