Contents

List of tables ix
Notes on contributors x

PART I
Introduction 1

1 Religion and spirituality in social work: creating an international dialogue 3
Beth R. Crisp

PART II
Regional perspectives 15

2 Australia: it's complicated 17
Beth R. Crisp

3 Korean social welfare's approach to spiritual diversity 26
Edward R. Canda, Jungrim Moon and Kyung Mee Kim

4 The absent presence of religion and spirituality in mental health social work in Northern Ireland 35
Patricia Carlisle

5 Spirituality and religion in Maltese social work practice: a taboo? 43
Claudia Psaila

PART III
Religious and spiritual traditions 53

6 The constructed 'Indian' and Indigenous sovereignty: social work practice with Indigenous peoples 55
Arielle Dylan and Bartholemew Smallboy

7 The sacred in traditional African spirituality: creating synergies with social work practice 64
Raisuyah Bhagwan

8 Studying social work: dilemmas and difficulties of Ultra-Orthodox women 73
Nehami Baum

9 Western Buddhism and social work 81
Caroline Humphrey

10 Achieving dynamic balancing: application of Daoist principles into social work practice 90
Celia Hoi Yan Chan, Xiao-Wen Ji and Cecilia Lai Wan Chan

11 Celtic spirituality: exploring the fascination across time and place 100
Laura Béres

12 Material spirituality: challenging Gnostic tendencies in contemporary understandings of religion and spirituality in social work 108
Russell Whiting

13 Social work with Muslim communities: treading a critical path over the crescent moon 118
Sara Ashencaen Crabtree

14 Religious and spiritual perspectives of social work among the Palestinians 128
Alean Al-Krenawi

PART IV
Faith-based service provision 137

15 Partners in service and justice: Catholic social welfare and the social work profession 139
Linda Plitt Donaldson

16 Residential childcare in faith-based institutions 149
Mark Smith

17 The background and roles of The Salvation Army in providing social and faith-based services 157
Michael Wolf-Branigin and Katie Hirtz Bingaman

18 South Asian gurus, their movements and social service 164
Samta P. Pandya

19 Reclaiming compassion: Auschwitz, Holocaust remembrance and social work 173
John G. Fox

20 At a crossroads: the Church of Sweden and its role as a welfare provider in a changing Swedish welfare state 182
Eva Jeppsson Grassman

PART V
Religion and spirituality across the lifespan 191

21 Spirituality: the missing component in trauma therapy across the lifespan 193
Heather Marie Boynton and Jo-Ann Vis

22 Spirituality as a protective factor for children and adolescents 202
Linda Benavides

23 Responding to child abuse in religious contexts 210
Philip Gilligan

24 Queer meaning 220
Mark Henrickson

25 From entanglement to equanimity: an application of a holistic healing approach into social work practice with infertile couples 228
Yao Hong and Celia Hoi Yan Chan

26 Life's end journey: social workers in palliative care 237
Martha Wiebe

27 Social work and suffering in end-of-life care: an arts-based approach 245
Irene Renzenbrink

PART VI
Social work practice 255

28 Religious literacy in public and professional settings 257
Adam Dinham

29 Spirituality and sexuality: exploring tensions in everyday relationship-based practice 265
Janet Melville-Wiseman

30 Mindfulness for professional resilience 274
James Lucas

31 Spiritual competence: the key to effective practice with people from diverse religious backgrounds 282
David R. Hodge

32 A spiritual approach to social work practice 291
Ann M. Carrington

33 Critical spirituality and social work practice 300
Fiona Gardner

34 Spiritually informed social work within conflict-induced displacement 309
Malabika Das

35 Holistic arts-based social work 320
Diana Coholic

36 Ethical principles for transitioning to a renewable energy economy in an era of climate change 329
Mishka Lysack

37 The spiritual dimensions of ecosocial work in the context of global climate change 338
Fred H. Besthorn and Jon Hudson

38 Ultimate concerns and human rights: how can practice sensitive to spirituality and religion expand and sharpen social work capacity to challenge social injustice? 347
Fran Gale and Michael Dudley

39 Addressing spiritual bypassing: issues and guidelines for spiritually sensitive practice 358
Michael J. Sheridan

PART VII
Conclusion 369

40 Developing the agenda for religion and spirituality in social work 371
Beth R. Crisp

Index 379

Tables

9.1 Buddhist morality 84
10.1 The attributes and symbols of Yin and Yang 93
10.2 Body–mind techniques developed from Traditional Chinese Medicine 95
25.1 Symbolic manifestations of opposite extremes within infertility context 230
25.2 Proximal variables of spirituality with infertility 231
31.1 Values commonly affirmed in Western secular culture and Islamic culture 284
31.2 Islamically-modified CBT protocols 288
34.1 Spiritually informed features 313