CONTENTS

List of maps, figures and tables iv
Foreword: Andrea Graziosi v
Introduction: Understanding the Great Famine of 1932–1934 in Soviet Ukraine 1
How many died? 5
Who were the victims? 6
Famine loss estimates 9
How are losses estimated? 12
Soviet Ukraine's demographic statistics 20
Why death certificates aren't reliable 22
Rural and urban losses 23
Regional variation in losses 25
Famine as a weapon of terror 27
The surge in mortality 29
The Soviet "food assistance" program 30
Soviet and Russian narratives 32
Resistance to Stalin's policies 36
Long-term consequences 38
Comparison with other famines in Ukraine 40
Comparison with world famines 44
Was it genocide? 45
Appendix 1: Western journalists and the famine 49
Appendix 2: Starving to death 55
Appendix 3: Grain exports and agricultural crisis in Soviet Ukraine 57
Appendix 4: Torgsin 63
Appendix 5: From the Holodomor to the Hungerplan? 65
Appendix 6: Commemoration and international recognition 69
Glossary 76
Bibliography 78
Index 84
About the authors 92