

Contents

Abstract	5
Introduction	7
1. Terminology	13
2. Introduction to the European crisis	15
2.1 Key actors in the European integration crisis	20
2.2 Introductory economic analysis, selected characteristics and international comparison	23
3. Political and institutional crisis	29
4. Debt crisis and crisis of public finance	41
4.1 European debt union and its selected aspects	41
4.1.1 Indebtedness in the example of Greece	41
4.1.2 Short-term and long-term fiscal imbalance	43
4.1.2.1 The Maastricht criteria	48
4.1.3 Creditor status of core countries against periphery countries	50
4.2 Affected EU countries and rescue programs	52
4.2.1 Variants of deleveraging	55
5. Crisis of confidence	57
5.1 Banking sector and financial markets	57
5.2 EU citizens	60
6. Crisis consisting in different qualities of European economies, competitiveness and euro crisis	65
6.1 European monetary union and its theoretical basis	65
6.2 Convergence according to economic maturity	67
6.3 Economic imbalances	69
6.3.1 Balance of payments	70
6.3.2 Convergence and labour market	74
6.3.3 Competitiveness and its international evaluation	76

7. Banking and financial crisis and economic crisis	79
7.1 Banking and financial sectors and their consequences	82
8. Testing of convergence (divergence) of groups of EU countries and cluster analysis	91
8.1 β -convergence method	92
8.1.1 Data and methodology	92
8.1.2 Research results and their interpretation	94
8.2 Cluster analysis	98
8.2.1 Data and methodology	100
8.2.2 Research results and their interpretation	101
9. Selected measures proposed or taken by the EU	107
9.1 Common bonds	109
9.2 Tax on financial transactions	112
9.3 Creation of banking union	116
9.3.1 Advantageous position of the Czech Republic and its banking system	119
9.4 Fiscal Compact	120
9.4.1 Debt brake and balanced budgets mechanism	124
9.5 Bailout funds network – EFSM, EFSF, ESM	126
9.6 Role and interventions of the ECB	129
10. SWOT analysis of the European Union and further development	135
10.1 Further development of integration processes	140
11. Recommendations and conclusions for the Czech Republic	143
Conclusion	147
Literature	151
List of tables and charts	163
List of abbreviations	167