

Contents

Introduction | ZLATICA ZUDOVÁ-LEŠKOVÁ

Resettlement and Extermination of the Populations – Fixed Part of Human History	11
--	----

PART I.

Resettlement and Extermination of the Populations – the Theories and the Plans (and the Facts)

Chapter 1 | ZLATICA ZUDOVÁ-LEŠKOVÁ

Resettlement and Extermination of Inhabitants. A Syndrome of the History of the 20 th Century (A Brief Outline)	23
---	----

Chapter 2 | PETR PROKŠ

The Plans of the Great Powers on Solution for Constitutional and National Problems in Central Europe in 1914–1918/1919 (Germany, Austria-Hungary, Russia, France, the United Kingdom, the United States)	37
---	----

Chapter 3 | OLEKSANDER KRAVCHUK

The Disintegration of Multinational Empires at the End of the World War I in the Estimations of Thomas Garrigue Masaryk	69
--	----

Chapter 4 | MICHAL ŠMIGEL – PAVOL TIŠLIAR – BRANISLAV ŠPROCHA

Ethnic Cleansings and a Concept of Ethnically Homogenous States in Europe (In the Context of Historical Experience and Memory)	85
---	----

Chapter 5 | ONDŘEJ ŽÍLA

From a Multi-Ethnic Blending to Hegemony: The Reconstruction of Ethno-Demographic and Spatial Impacts of the Civil War in Bosnia and Herzegovina	111
--	-----

PART II.

Resettlement and Extermination of the Populations – the Facts (and the Theories and the Plans)

Chapter 6 | ELENA BELOVA

Resettlement of the South Slavs in New Russia during the Russian-Turkish War between 1768 and 1774 141

Chapter 7 | LYNDALL RYAN

The Raw Wool Industry, Frontier Massacres and the Dispossession of Australia's Indigenous Peoples, 1820–1851 155

Chapter 8 | JANA ŠKERLOVÁ

Population Migration in the Territory of Former Yugoslavia in the 20th Century 169

Chapter 9 | EMIL VORÁČEK

Forced Deportations of USSR Nations in the 1930s and 1940s.
“A Purgatory for Those Alive” (Selected Problems) 197

Chapter 10 | JAN RYCHLÍK

Freedom of Movement and Emigration in the Habsburg Empire and Czechoslovakia 1848–1989 219

Chapter 11 | JINDŘICH DEJMEK

The Partition of India and the Creation of Pakistan in the Summer of 1947: the Ideological Roots and Population Consequences 239

PART III.

Nazi “New Europe” and its Corollary – the End of Europe's World Prestige

Chapter 12 | VOJTĚCH KYNCL

“New Europe” – the Nazi Plan from the Perspective of Resettlement of Nations. The origins of the Nazi “New Europe” 259

Chapter 13 MICHAL SCHVARC – MATEJ HANULA “Rückführung Südost”. Evacuation of German Population from Slovakia 1944/1945 as Part of a Nazi “Volkstumspolitik” in Southeastern Europe during the Final Phase of World War II	281
Chapter 14 JAN KUKLÍK – JAN NĚMEČEK Displacements, Expulsions and “Transfers” of German Minorities and German Population in Central Europe between 1944 and 1947. Czechoslovak Case Study in Comparison with Poland	317
Chapter 15 MAREK KORŇAT The Problem of the Resettlement of German Population from the Territories Incorporated into Poland after World War II in the Proposals of the Polish Government in Exile (1942–1945)	373
Chapter 16 JÖRG ROESLER Resettlement of Germans from New Poland in West Germany and in East Germany after WW II American zone. Similarities and Differences in Treatments by the Authorities and in Results of Integration	389

PART IV.

Czechoslovakia and its Migration Policy (1918–1992)

Chapter 17 VÁCLAVA HORČÁKOVÁ Czech (and Czechoslovak) Historiography on the Causes, Mechanisms and Consequences of Migrations of Nations in the Years 1918–1989. Literature from the Years 1945–2014	409
Chapter 18 JAROSLAV VACULÍK Re-emigration of the Czechs and Slovaks after World War I and World War II	445
Chapter 19 HELENA NOSKOVÁ Post-War Migrations in the Borderland and Dispersion of the “Untrustworthy” Population due to Political Pressure	471

Chapter 20 FRANTIŠEK ČAPKA ... To the Process of Resettlement of the Czech Border Areas after the World War II	483
Chapter 21 JANA BUREŠOVÁ The Emigration and Exile from Czechoslovakia to Australia in the 20 th Century	497
Chapter 22 JIŘÍ FRIEDL Returning Home and Leaving for Freedom. The Role of Czechoslovakia during the Migrations of Polish Citizens from 1945 to 1948	525
Chapter 23 KONSTANTINOS TSIVOS The Greek immigration in Czechoslovakia (1948–1989): Arrival, Process of Settlement, Legal Status, Repatriation	539
Summary	557
Abbreviations	573
Selected Bibliography	579
Journals (Selected)	601
About the Authors	603
Thanks	609
Index of Names	611