

PART ONE

BAD TIMING

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 1. The Right Is Right: The Revolutionary Power of Climate Change | 31 |
| 2. Hot Money: How Free Market Fundamentalism Helped Overheat the Planet | 64 |
| 3. Public and Paid For: Overcoming the Ideological Blocks to the Next Economy | 96 |
| 4. Planning and Banning: Slapping the Invisible Hand, Building a Movement | 120 |
| 5. Beyond Extractivism: Confronting the Climate Denier Within | 161 |

PART TWO

MAGICAL THINKING

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 6. Fruits, Not Roots: The Disastrous Merger of Big Business and Big Green | 191 |
| 7. No Messiahs: The Green Billionaires Won't Save Us | 230 |
| 8. Dimming the Sun: The Solution to Pollution Is . . . Pollution? | 256 |

PART THREE

STARTING ANYWAY

9.	Blockadia: The New Climate Warriors	293
10.	Love Will Save This Place: Democracy, Divestment, and the Wins So Far	337
11.	You and What Army? Indigenous Rights and the Power of Keeping Our Word	367
12.	Sharing the Sky: The Atmospheric Commons and the Power of Paying Our Debts	388
13.	The Right to Regenerate: Moving from Extraction to Renewal	419
	Conclusion The Leap Years: Just Enough Time for Impossible	449
	Notes	467
	Acknowledgments	527
	Index	535