CONTENTS

	Acknowledgements	x
	Preface	xi
	The Breadth of Opposition	xiii
	Achilles' Heel – President Bush Needs Mr Blair	1
	Phase I – After 11 September
I	Peaceful Tomorrows – Statements by 11 September Relatives	15
II	Terror and Just Response – by Noam Chomsky	23
III	The Smoking Gun – The Taliban Agreed to Extradite Bin Laden	37
	Phase II – Iraq
	Iraq Background	41
	Map of Iraq	44
IV	Destroying UNSCOM – The US Versus The Weapons Inspectors	45
V	Undermining UNMOVIC – The US Versus The Weapons Inspectors	57
VI	Inspection Is an Option	65
VII	Regime Stabilisation, 1991 – The US Helped To Crush The Uprisings	75
VIII	Regime Stabilisation, 2002 – 'Leadership Change', Not 'Regime Change'	83
IX	The Control of Oil	99
	On The Streets of Iraq – Photographs by Kim Weston-Arnold	103
X	Ten Reasons Against War On Iraq	115
	1 The Phantom Menace – No Evidence Iraq Has These Weapons	117
	2 Prague No Show – No Link Between Iraq and 11 September	127
	3 Cloning Saddam – This Is Not About 'Regime Change'	133
	4 Catastrophe – War Could Trigger A Humanitarian Disaster	135
	5 Unsafe Haven – Endangering The Kurds	141
	6 Crime Time – War Would Be Illegal	143
	7 Ring Of Anger – Iraq's Neighbours Fear Bush, Not Saddam	151
	8 GI Joe Says No – US and British Generals Oppose The War	155
	9 No Mandate – 58% Of UK Opposes War	165
	10 It's The Economy Stupid – War Could Trigger A World Recession	171
XI	Sanctions Kill	175
XII	Nuking Iraq	185
XIII	Resisting Thought Control	189
XIV	Turning Back The War	193
XV	War Plan Iraq	195
	Last Words – by 11 September Relatives	205
	Appendix – The Nineteen Questions	207
	Notes	211
	Next Steps: Ten Possible Actions, Further Reading & Further Contacts	231
	Notes on Contributors	232
	Index	233