

Summary

The submitted textbook was written by the authors from the Department of Legal Communication in English at the Faculty of law of Pan-European University and therefore it originated from the overall needs of the students who have to complete 4-term-study programme in legal English. The textbook consists of 19 chapters that cover the 4-term syllabus of legal English lectured at the Faculty of law. It begins with the general introduction and deals with the basic legal terminology. As to the inner structure of the textbook, each chapter begins with the key words, next follows the glossary where main terms are defined. Each chapter closes with exercises aimed at practising the acquired knowledge.

The purpose of the contents structure is to meet the requirements of the subject syllabus, and to ensure the acquisition of adequate language skills and professional competence.
