
INDEX

- A
- adequate level of protection
 - EU to third country transfers 2, 84, 87–90, 101–114, 195–205
 - Adkins v Facebook, Inc* 42
 - Aguinaldo, Angela* 5
 - Åkerberg Fransson* 69
 - Alaska Permanent Fund
 - dividend payments 37
 - Alexy, Robert* 107
 - Altmaier, Peter* 211
 - Apple
 - Legal Process Guidelines 153
 - appropriate safeguards
 - EU to third country transfers 101–102, 195–196
 - Australia
 - data protection, generally 25
 - extraterritorial application of data protection law 10, 21, 24
 - X v Twitter* 22
 - Austria
 - Glawischnig-Piesczek v Facebook* 4, 20–21, 22, 23, 24, 58–59, 90–96
 - authoritarian regimes
 - exploitation of digital technology 11, 23–24, 24n, 25, 220, 222
- B
- Barlow, John Perry* 214
 - Benedik v Slovenia* 153–154
 - Bignami, Francesca* 90
 - Bluetooth technology
 - location data 15
 - Bradford, Anu* 10, 196
 - Brandeis, Louis* 9, 81, 83
 - Brexit
 - transnational data flows and 2, 6, 196, 197–202, 209
 - Budapest Convention see Cybercrime Convention
 - Burchardt, Dana* 4
- C
- Cambridge Analytica scandal 219, 224
 - Canada
 - CETA 179
 - Charter of Rights and Freedoms 156
 - data protection, generally 25
 - EU-Canada PNR Agreement 198, 208
 - extraterritorial application of data protection law 10, 21, 24
 - Google Inc v Equustek Solutions Inc* 21–22, 23
 - R v Spencer* 156
 - USMCA 178–179, 179n, 184
 - Carpenter v United States* 1–2, 29, 127, 128–129
 - Celeste, Edoardo 6
 - Celeste, Edoardo and Fabbri, Federico 3
 - cellphone tracking
 - Carpenter v United States* 1–2, 29, 127, 128–129
 - CLOUD Act 119–120, 127–129
 - definition of tracking device 128
 - generally 133–134
 - legal governance, generally 127–128
 - Tracking Device Statute (TDS) 127–128
 - United States v Ackies* 128
 - US Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41 127–128, 131, 132, 133
 - US SCA warrants 128, 132
 - US Stored Communications Act 128
 - US Tracking Device Statute (TDS) 127–128
 - Chander, A and Lê, UP 191, 224
 - Charter of Fundamental Rights
 - Article 7 11, 13, 66, 77, 83, 87, 90, 91, 104, 110, 170, 198
 - Article 8 12, 13, 66, 77, 83, 87, 90, 91, 110, 170, 198, 221
 - Article 11 66, 74
 - Article 16 66, 74
 - Article 47 104, 110, 170
 - Article 52(1) 112, 114
 - data privacy 12, 18, 48, 83, 85, 104

- domestic regulatory regimes and 64–71
- essence of fundamental rights 18, 100, 104–108
- EU-Canada PNR Agreement 198, 208
- freedom of expression 66, 74, 91
- freedom to conduct a business 66, 74
- generally 11–12, 13
- Ireland and 142
- judicial protection of fundamental rights 104
- personal data protection 85, 221
- Privacy Shield, invalidation 170, 200, 220
- respect for private and family life 13, 66, 81, 83, 85, 104
- Right to be forgotten II* 66–69
- Schrems I* and Schrems II 18
- standard of review, as 67–69
- state access to communications data 155
- territorial scope of EU law 90, 91
- Chicago Convention on Civil Aviation
 - Article 1 185
- China
 - Chinese technology firms 219–220, 226–227
 - cross-border data flow 84
 - generally 25
 - government control of data economy 220, 222
 - National Intelligence Law 24n, 220
- Churches, G and Zalnieriute, M 88
- Clarifying Lawful Overseas Use of Data (CLOUD) Act
 - ambiguous language 119–120
 - background to 122–124
 - CLOUD Act Agreements 124, 134, 137, 160
 - conflict of laws 175–176
 - criminal investigations 119–120
 - data covered by 125, 215
 - digital sovereignty 215, 224
 - enforcement 120
 - EU law and 148
 - extraterritorial impact 119–120, 123–124, 129, 132–136, 174–175, 215
 - foreign servers 2, 119, 121, 122, 133, 136, 160, 215
 - generally 1, 4–5, 161–162, 171, 215
 - hacking (network investigative techniques) 5, 119–121, 129–132, 133–137
 - human rights issues 166
 - interception flaw 134
 - international law and 121, 122
 - malware 121, 129–130, 132, 135–136
 - non-party third countries 134
 - pen registers 119
 - provider, technical assistance from 126, 127, 128, 133
 - provider-held electronic data 125, 127
 - providers covered by 125, 127, 175
 - provisions, generally 122–132, 161–162, 171, 174–175
 - purpose 119
 - real-time cellphone tracking 119–120, 127–129, 133–134
 - real-time surveillance in foreign country 5, 119–120
 - reciprocity 123–124, 126, 134
 - surveillance modes 125–132
 - territorial sovereignty and 120, 132–134, 215
 - UK-US CLOUD Act Agreement 119, 125, 134, 199–200
 - United States 119–137, 160, 174–175, 215
 - US data companies 160
 - wiretaps 119, 123–124, 125–127, 132, 133–134, 136
- commercial databases
 - United States 27
- content providers
 - EU personal data protection 83
 - EU right to be forgotten and 65, 76, 77–78
- contract
 - United States concept of 36
- Convention 108
 - Council of Europe 171n
 - Ireland 143, 145
- Convention for the Protection of Submarine Telegraph Cables 186
- Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) see European Court of Justice
- Covid-19 health crisis
 - EDPB guidelines 15
 - EU data protection law 3, 10, 14–16, 24
 - generally 6
 - Israel 14
 - Taiwan 14
 - track and trace systems 9, 14–16
- criminal investigations
 - see also* surveillance measures
 - CLOUD Act see Clarifying Lawful Overseas Use of Data (CLOUD) Act
 - conduct occurring abroad 122

- Cybercrime Convention see Cybercrime Convention
- data localisation/nationalisation 157, 173, 185
- domestic production orders 164, 169–171, 172
- e-Evidence Package 5, 140, 141–142, 156, 160–162, 169n, 171–172
- EU data protection 13
- EU Production and Preservation Orders 160–161
- European Investigation Order (EIO) 141–142, 171
- foreign-located data 1, 122, 133, 136, 157
- indirect evidence collection methods 133
- Irish practice see Irish providers, voluntary disclosure of data by
- MLATs see mutual legal assistance system
- online evidence 157
- presumption against extraterritoriality 122
- privacy rights and 167–169
- private actors, involvement 165–167, 171–172
- service providers/tech companies, direct cooperation 139–157, 158, 159, 164–172
- territorial sovereignty 132–134
- unilateralism or jurisdictional expansion 158
- voluntary disclosure see voluntary disclosure to foreign law enforcement
- cross-border data flow
- Brexit and 2, 6, 196, 197–202, 209
- China 84
- CLOUD Act see Clarifying Lawful Overseas Use of Data (CLOUD) Act
- CLOUD Act Agreements 124, 134, 137, 160
- criminal investigations, generally 1, 122
- Cross-Border Privacy Rules (CBPR) 178, 179
- data balkanisation 173, 216
- data classification 177
- data as consideration for services 177, 180–181
- data localisation/nationalisation 157, 173, 185, 191–192, 216, 221–222, 225–226
- data privacy, generally 168
- Digital Rights Ireland* 85–86, 87, 105–106, 221
- economic activity, ancillary to 177
- EU, within 181–182, 191
- EU regulations, extraterritorial impact 4, 84, 87, 90, 91, 96, 191–209
- extraterritoriality 186
- foreign law, examination 100, 107–108, 112, 114, 116, 196, 200
- foreign servers 119, 121, 122, 133
- free-flow of data, generally 173–176
- G20 Summits 187–188
- GDPR, data protectionism 191–192
- GDPR, third country transfers 88–90, 110–111, 115, 147, 150–152, 169, 195–196, 197, 208, 224
- generally 1, 122
- International Telecommunications Union (ITU) 188
- international trade law see international trade law
- Irish failure to legislate for access 140, 141
- Irish providers see Irish providers, voluntary disclosure of data by
- OECD documents and analysis 187, 187n
- opt-out approach to agreements 185
- Privacy Shield 2, 18, 87–88, 107–114, 169–171, 200
- reciprocity, principle of 185
- Safe Harbour scheme 18, 87–90, 102–103, 108, 115–116, 168–169
- surveillance, generally 121, 132–137
- territorial sovereignty 122, 132–134, 185
- Trans-Atlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) 186–187
- transit, data in 185
- US, generally 84
- US cross-border surveillance 5, 119–121
- US mass surveillance of EU citizens 18, 100–116
- voluntary disclosure to foreign law enforcement 139–140
- Cybercrime Convention
- as basis for direct cooperation 5, 164–172, 165n
- coerced cooperation 164
- consent of data processing companies 164, 165n, 168
- consent of users 164, 165n, 168
- domestic production orders 164, 169–171, 172
- domestically held data 166
- extraterritorial reach 164, 165, 166, 166n, 172
- generally 5, 134, 141, 161–162, 172
- Guidance Notes 164–165

- human rights protection 166
 - Irish non-ratification 5, 141
 - lawful and voluntary consent 164–165
 - non-domestically held data 166
 - service providers 164
 - shortcomings 163, 166
 - United States ratification 163
 - US ratification 163, 165
- D
- dark patterns 36
 - Daskal, Jennifer 21, 89
 - data
 - aggregated 180
 - balkanisation 173, 216
 - as consideration for services 177, 180–181
 - erasure, right to see right to be forgotten
 - free-flow see cross-border data flow
 - granular 180
 - localisation/nationalisation 157, 173, 185, 191–192, 216, 221–222, 225–226
 - market 37
 - meaning, generally 180
 - personal and non-personal 181–182
 - privacy protection see data privacy protection
 - protection, generally 1
 - sovereignty 217
 - transit, data in 113, 185
 - data controller
 - inaccurate or erroneous data 168
 - Irish subsidiaries 140–142
 - search engine operator as 52, 58
 - data privacy protection
 - see also* right to privacy
 - central servers 100–101, 119
 - changing terminology 9
 - conflicting judgments 105
 - criminal procedural law and 167–169
 - cross-border data transmission 122
 - Cybercrime Convention 134, 141, 161–166
 - data localisation/nationalisation 157, 173, 185, 191–192, 216, 221–222, 225–226
 - ECJ case law 85–97, 99–116
 - economic approach see economic approach to privacy
 - electronic data stored abroad, obtaining 119
 - EU Charter see Charter of Fundamental Rights
 - EU data law 9, 10, 13, 72, 81, 82–84
 - European Convention on Human Rights 11–12, 82
 - European Court of Human Rights 82
 - ‘Europeanisation’ 84, 87, 90, 91, 96, 192–196
 - foreign servers 119, 121, 122, 133
 - inaccurate or erroneous data 168
 - mass surveillance 18, 100–116
 - metadata 105–106
 - Schrems* decisions see Schrems I and Schrems II
 - threats to data integrity 27
 - transnational matters 168
 - United States 25, 81, 82, 83–84, 86–87, 94, 102–103
 - data protection authorities
 - independence 13
 - De Busser, Els 167
 - De Hert, Paul 5
 - De Hert, Paul and Papakonstantinou, Vagelis 51
 - De Hert, Paul and Thumfart, Johannes 215
 - dereferencing see right to be forgotten
 - Digital Rights Ireland 85–86, 87, 105–106, 221
 - digital sovereignty
 - adequate infrastructure 222
 - competing regulatory regimes, where 63–64, 67–71, 79
 - cyberspace, generally 214
 - data storage 212, 214–215, 222–223
 - defining 213–218
 - delimiting regulatory competences 63
 - Digital Rights Ireland* 85–86, 87, 221
 - ECJ case law 85–97
 - EU Member States 63–64, 67–71, 72, 79, 85–97, 211–228
 - extraterritorial processing 212, 214–215
 - foreign servers and technology companies 218–220
 - GDPR 63, 193, 215
 - generally 6, 63–64, 215–216
 - limits of 227
 - metadata 106–107
 - nationalism and 225–226
 - private organisations 218
 - risk of 224–226
 - US CLOUD Act 215, 224
- E
- economic approach to privacy
 - Europe 82
 - United States 35–38

erasure, right to see right to be forgottenEuropean Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)

- Article 8 11–12, 110, 154, 201
- Article 10 149–150
- criminal procedural law and 167–168
- Cybercrime Convention 166
- Irish providers, voluntary disclosure
 - by 140, 142, 154–155
- respect for private and family life 11–12, 48, 82
- state access to communications
 - data 154–155
- voluntary disclosure under 149–150, 154–155

European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)

- Benedik v Slovenia* 153–154
- jurisprudence 82
- Malone v United Kingdom* 155

European Court of Justice (ECJ)

- Åkerberg Fransson* 69
 - balancing process 86
 - data protection jurisprudence 9–10, 11, 13–14, 24, 74–75, 84–85, 99
 - digital privacy and digital sovereignty 85–97
 - Digital Rights Ireland* 85–86, 87, 105–106, 221
 - domestic law and 64–79
 - freedom of speech 85
 - GC et al v CNIL* 73
 - Glawischnig-Piesczek v Facebook* 4, 20–21, 22, 23, 24, 49, 90–96
 - Google Spain SL v AEPD see Google Spain SL v AEPD*
 - Google v CNIL* 3–4, 19–20, 22, 23, 24, 47–62, 90–96, 99, 175, 195, 226
 - jurisdiction, generally 49, 79, 84–85
 - monopoly on interpretation 74, 79
 - private companies 13–14
 - right to be forgotten 10, 16–18, 47–62, 63–64
 - Safe Harbour scheme 18, 87–90, 102–103
 - Schrems* decisions see Schrems I and Schrems II
 - Tele2/Watson* 155, 200, 201
 - Wirtschaftsakademie Schleswig-Holstein* 207
- European Union (EU)
- Brexit and transnational data flows 2, 6, 196, 197–202, 209
 - Code of Conduct on countering illegal hate speech online 94

- Code of Practice on disinformation 94
 - Court of Justice (ECJ) see European Court of Justice
 - Cybercrime Convention 134, 141, 161–166
 - differentiated treatment of non-EU countries 197–209
 - digital infrastructure 222
 - domestic and EU law, parallel applicability 4, 64–79
 - domestic production orders 164, 169–171, 172
 - e-Evidence Package 5, 140, 141–142, 156, 160–162, 169n, 171–172
 - EU-Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) 179
 - European Cloud Initiative 2, 223
 - European Investigation Order (EIO) 141–142, 171
 - free flow of data within 181–182, 191
 - fully harmonised matters 68–69
 - Gaia-X 211, 216, 217, 218, 223
 - hacking regulations, Member State 130
 - inconsistencies between domestic and EU standards 72, 75–79
 - integration, responsibility with regard to 67–68
 - Law Enforcement Directive 147, 148, 169
 - Market Instruments Regulation 206–207
 - multilevel structure 63–64, 66–71, 79
 - mutual recognition, concept generally 203–204
 - mutual trust, concept generally 6, 203–205, 209
 - national security 200
 - personal data protection see European Union (EU) personal data protection
 - Production and Preservation Orders 160–161
 - Regulation 2018/1807 81–82
 - standard of review 67–71
 - territorial fragmentation of rights standards 72–75, 79
- European Union (EU) personal data protection
- adequate level of protection, third country transfers 2, 88, 101–104, 195–205
 - appropriate safeguards, third country transfers 101–102, 195–196
 - Article 29 Working Party 53–54, 91, 165n
 - Charter see Charter of Fundamental Rights
 - constitutionalisation 82–83
 - contact-tracing framework 14–16

- content providers 83
- Covid-19 health crisis 3, 10, 14–16, 24
- criminal offences or penalties, data on 13
- data localisation/nationalisation 191–192, 216, 221–222, 225–226
- Data Protection Authorities (DPAs) 40, 41, 109–110, 111
- Data Protection Board (EDPB) 15, 53, 88, 111, 148, 150–151, 165n
- Data Protection Directive (95/46) 12–13, 16, 48, 58, 82, 91–92
- Data Protection Directive (95/46) Article 4 51–52, 87, 145, 194
- Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS) 12, 148, 150–151, 165n
- Data Retention Directive (2006/24) 13, 85–86, 221
- data storage 212, 215, 222–223
- differentiated treatment of non-EU countries 197–209
- Digital Rights Ireland* 85–86, 87, 105–106, 221
- Digital Single Market Strategy 223
- digital sovereignty 63–64, 67–71, 72, 79, 85–97, 211–228
- Directive 2016/680 13
- domestic regulatory regimes and 64–71
- E-Commerce Directive Article 15(1) 49, 58–59
- economic approach to privacy 82
- electronic communications services, definition 156
- ePrivacy Directive (2002/58) 15, 139, 139n, 156
- essence of fundamental rights 16, 18, 100, 104–108, 116
- essentially equivalent protection 88, 103, 196, 200, 208
- EU-Canada PNR Agreement 198, 208
- EU to third country transfers 84, 87–90, 101–114, 195–196, 197–202, 224
- European Cloud Initiative 2, 223
- European Electronic Communications Code (EECC) 140, 156
- European Evidence Warrant 141
- European Open Science Cloud 223
- European Parliament powers 12
- EU's economic and political influence 10
- excessive, data deemed 48, 52
- external limitations 112–116
- extraterritorial application 2, 3, 4, 6, 10, 17–25, 57, 81, 84–87, 90–97, 99–116, 215
- extraterritorial impact 4, 6, 84, 87, 90, 91, 96, 191–209
- extraterritorial processing 212, 215
- foreign technology companies 218–220
- free movement of personal data 191
- fundamental rights and freedoms 12, 66, 81–85, 99–116
- GDPR see General Data Protection Regulation
- generally 9–10, 11–14, 24–25, 47–48, 72, 81–84, 220
- imperialist approach 84–85, 91, 192
- inadequate, irrelevant or no longer relevant data 48, 52–53
- incomplete or inaccurate data 48
- inconsistencies between domestic and EU standards 72, 75–79
- independence of data protection authorities 13
- influence 27, 84–85
- judicial protection of fundamental rights 104
- Lisbon Treaty 12
- mandatory nature 103–104
- media privilege 66, 69, 76, 78
- mutual trust and treatment of non-EU states 6, 202–205, 209
- national legislation in breach of 13
- objectives 19, 191
- personal data, generally 181–182
- Privacy Shield 2, 18, 87–88, 107–114, 169–171, 200
- protectionist motivation 191–192
- right to be forgotten 3–4, 10, 16–17, 19–23, 24, 48–62, 66–71
- risk of abuse, protection against 114
- Schrems* decisions see Schrems I and Schrems II
- scope 10, 13, 86
- territorial application 10, 17–25, 47–62, 81, 90–96, 99–116
- territorial fragmentation of rights standards 72–75, 79
- trans-border data flows 84, 87–90, 101–111, 115, 181–182, 191
- Treaty on European Union (TEU) 200, 202
- Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (TFEU) 12, 13, 83, 200
- US as Safe Harbour 18, 87–90, 102–103, 168–169
- extraterritorial application
- Australia 10, 21, 24
- Binding Corporate Rules 101

Brexit and transnational data flows 2, 6, 196, 197–202, 209
 business-to-business data exchange 18
 Canada 10, 21, 24
 CLOUD Act 119–120, 123–124, 129, 132–136, 174–175, 215
 comparative perspective 21–24
 Convention for extraterritorial application the Protection of Submarine Telegraph Cables 186
 Data Protection Authorities (DPAs) 40, 41, 109–110, 111
 Data Protection Directive (95/46) Article 4 194
 digital sovereignty 6, 63–64, 67–71, 85–97, 211–228
 EU fundamental rights 100, 104–107, 113–114
 EU personal data protection 2, 3, 4, 6, 10, 17–25, 57, 81, 84–85, 90–97, 99–116, 191–209, 215
 EU Privacy Shield 2, 18, 87–88, 107–114, 169–171, 200 explicit extraterritoriality 192–193
 external dimension 107–108, 111–114, 116 factors forming basis 99–100, 112
 foreign law, examination 100, 107–108, 112, 114, 116, 196, 200
 General Data Protection Regulation 19, 48–49, 52, 58, 87, 92, 99, 115, 173–174, 193–194, 215
 generally 10–11, 24–25, 63, 84–85
Glawischnig-Piesczek v Facebook 4, 20–21, 22, 23, 24, 58–59, 90–96
 global nature of data processing 207
Google Inc v Equustek Solutions Inc 21–22, 23
Google Spain SL v AEPD 18–19, 48–49, 50–54, 58, 60–61, 86–87, 90, 91, 99, 194–195
Google v CNIL 3–4, 19–20, 22, 23, 24, 47–62, 90–96, 195, 226
 hacking (network investigative techniques) 5, 119–121, 129–132, 133–137
 hostile acts/destabilised relations 121, 130, 132, 135–136
 indirect extraterritoriality 193–195 international comity and 10, 21–22, 23, 24, 95
 interpretation of EU fundamental rights 100, 104–107

merits of application for EU fundamental rights 113–114
Microsoft Ireland 123, 125, 140, 152
 rational behind 21–24, 115
 right to be forgotten 19–23, 50–62
Schrems decisions see Schrems I and Schrems II
 Standard Contractual Clauses 18, 88–89, 101, 110–111, 169, 169n, 195, 208
 trans-border data flows 84, 87–90, 101–111, 115, 186
Wirtschaftsakademie Schleswig-Holstein 207
X v Twitter 22

F

Facebook

Cambridge Analytica scandal 219, 224
 privacy policy 153
Schrems I and Schrems II 100–101, 110

Fan, Z and Gupta, A 191–192

Ferran, Eilís 198

Fischer, Jordan 3, 224

Fleischer, Peter 54

forgotten, right to be see right to be forgotten

France

Andromède 223

Gaia-X 211, 216, 217, 218, 223

Google v CNIL 3–4, 19–20, 22, 23, 24, 47–62, 90–96

free-flow of data see cross-border data flow

freedom of information

right to be forgotten and 23, 65

freedom of speech

Charter of Fundamental Rights 66, 74

Code of Conduct on countering illegal hate speech online 94

Code of Practice on disinformation 94

ECJ case law 85, 90–96, 97

Google Spain SL v AEPD 86–87, 91

media privilege 66, 69, 76, 78

right to be forgotten and 23, 59–60, 65, 75–76, 90–96

territorial application 90–96

United States 34, 86, 94, 97

freedom to conduct a business

Charter of Fundamental Rights 66, 74

G

G20 Summits

cross-border data flows 187–188

GC et al v CNIL 73

General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT)

- data classification 177
- data in transit 185
- Most Favoured Nation principle 6, 183

General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS)

- data classification 177
- Most Favoured Nation principle 6, 183

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

- Article 3 58, 173–174, 193–194
- Article 3(1) 52
- Article 3(2) 19, 52
- Article 5 146–147
- Article 6 146, 149–151, 153
- Article 17 3–4, 16–17, 48, 53, 61, 62, 92
- Article 21 151
- Article 23 147–148
- Article 44 195–196
- Article 45 88, 110
- Article 45(2)(a) 200
- Article 46 88
- Article 48 69
- Article 49 151–152, 195
- Article 85 66, 70, 75
- Brexit and 199
- competing regulatory regimes, where 63
- criticism of 35
- data protection authorities (DPAs) 40, 41, 111
- digital sovereignty 63, 193, 215
- ECJ case law 84
- essence of fundamental rights 16
- EU, disclosure within 147, 148–150
- explicit extraterritoriality 193
- fully harmonised matters 68–69
- fundamental rights protection 174
- generally 1, 13, 15, 24, 49, 84, 215
- health data 15
- influence 27, 28, 84–85
- Irish providers, voluntary disclosure by 5, 140, 146–152, 153, 156
- location data 15
- media privilege 66, 69, 76, 78
- mutual legal assistance system and 169
- non-EU controllers and processors 194, 215
- personal and non-personal data 181–182
- protectionism 191–192
- purpose limitation principle 146–148
- right to be forgotten 16–17, 48, 58, 92
- Right to be forgotten I and II* 66

- Technical Barriers to Trade and 183–184
- territorial scope 19, 48–49, 52, 58, 87, 88–89, 96, 99, 115, 173–174, 193–194, 215

- third-country legislation and 200
- third-country transfers 88–90, 110–111, 115, 147, 150–152, 169, 195–196, 197, 208, 224

- US data protection and 44, 84, 169, 174–175

- voluntary disclosure under 146–152, 156

geoblocking technology

- circumventing 55
- right to be forgotten 49, 55, 56, 57, 92, 96

Germany

- EU and domestic law, parallel applicability 4, 64–71
- Gaia-X 211, 216, 217, 218, 223
- Grundrechtsdogmatik* 77
- protection of human dignity 77
- responsibility with regard to EU integration 67–68
- right of personality 65, 77
- Right to be forgotten I and II* 64–79
- Solange II* 68

Ghappour, Ahmed 129, 136Gidari, Al 134

- Glawischnig-Piesczek v Facebook* 4, 20–21, 22, 23, 24, 49, 58–59, 90–96

global US-based companies 28Google privacy policy 153Google Inc v Equustek Solutions Inc 21–22, 23Google Spain SL v AEPD

- Article 29 Working Party guidelines 53–54
- erasure of data links 53
- generally 16–17, 18–19, 47–48, 49–54, 58, 207–208
- prevalence of right to be forgotten 73–74, 77, 78
- subsidiary status of Google Spain 51, 58
- territorial scope of decision 48–49, 50–54, 58, 60–61, 86–87, 90, 91, 99, 194–195
- US reaction to 48

Google v CNIL

- circumscribing right to be forgotten 58–62
- conflict of law, avoidance 175
- extraterritorial application 3–4, 50–62, 90–96, 195
- generally 19–20, 22, 23, 24, 47, 49–50, 54–55, 59, 73, 226

- Glawischnig-Piesczek v Facebook* and 58–59, 90–96

right to access information and 55, 56, 57, 59–62, 226
 right to be forgotten 3–4, 58–62, 90–96
 significance 62

GPS tracking
 EU prohibition 14–15

Griswold v Connecticut 29

H

hacking (network investigative techniques)
 CLOUD Act 5, 119–121, 129–132, 133–137
 EU Member State regulation 130
 extraterritorial 129–132
 hostile acts/destabilised relations 121, 130, 132, 135–136
 malware spillover 121, 129–130, 132, 135–136
 systemic risk to Internet security 135
 US, generally 29–32
 zero-day exploits 135

Hancock, Matt 197

health data
 Covid-19 contact-tracing 14–16
 GDPR provisions 15
 United States 31

Hogan, Annette 145

Hohmann, M and Barnett, S 166, 167

human rights protection
 CLOUD Act 166
 criminal procedural law and 167–169
 Cybercrime Convention 166
 international trade law and 182–183

I

imperialist approach to data privacy
 European Union 84–85, 91, 192
 generally 11, 25

innovation privacy regulation limiting 35, 38

international comity extraterritoriality and 10, 21–22, 23, 24, 95 principle, generally 3, 6, 213, 226, 227

international law
 CLOUD Act and 121, 122, 174–175
 conflict of laws 5, 175–176
 mutual legal assistance system 162
 presumption against extraterritoriality 122
 territorial sovereignty 120, 122, 132–134
 territoriality and nationality 206

International Telecommunications Union (ITU)
 cross-border data flows 188

international trade law
 APEC 178, 179
 classification of data 177
 Cross-Border Privacy Rules (CBPR) 178, 179
 data as consideration for services 177, 180–181
 data flows ancillary to economic activity 177
 EU-Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) 179 frame of reference 176–179
 free-flow of data, generally 5–6, 173–188
 GATS 177, 183
 GATT 177, 183, 185
 human rights and 182–183
 IMF Agreement 177
 Most Favoured Nation principle 6, 183
 National Treatment principle 6, 183
 Technical Barriers to Trade (TBT) 183–184
 US-Mexico-Canada Trade Agreement (USMCA) 178–179, 179n, 184
 WTO Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership 177–178, 184

Ireland
see also Irish providers, voluntary disclosure of data by Convention 108 143, 145
 Cybercrime Convention, non-ratification 5, 141
 Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2003 s8(b) 143–145, 146, 155
 Data Protection Act 2018 146, 148
 Data Protection Commissioner (DPC) 141, 143–146, 152
 e-Evidence Package 141–142, 156
 European Convention on Human Rights 154–155
 European Evidence Warrant opt-out 141
 European Investigation Order opt-out 141 failure to legislate for cross-border data access 5, 140, 141–142
 Irish Internet subsidiaries, generally 140–142, 143–144
Microsoft Ireland 123, 125, 140, 152
 mutual legal assistance requests to 139, 142

Irion, Kristina 90, 202

Irish providers, voluntary disclosure of data by assessment of practice 152–154

- content/non-content data 142, 143–144, 146, 153, 170
 - Data Protection Act 1988 s8(b) 143–145, 146
 - development of practice 142–146
 - e-Evidence Package 156
 - ECHR and 140, 142, 154–155
 - EECC and 140, 156
 - ePrivacy Directive 156
 - EU, disclosure within 147, 148–150, 153
 - foreign law enforcement, to 139–140
 - GDPR and 5, 140, 146–152, 156
 - GDPR Article 6 146, 148–151, 153
 - GDPR Article 49 151–152, 195
 - generally 5
 - proportionality principle 153
 - purpose limitation principle and 146–148
 - third countries, disclosure to 147, 150–152, 153
 - US Electronic Communications Privacy Act 140, 143–144, 153
- Israel
- Covid-19 health crisis measures 14
- J
- Jääskinen AG 86
- K
- Kuner, Christopher 193, 196, 208, 228
- L
- law enforcement
 - data retention for 13
 - Le Maire, Bruno 211
 - Lessig, Lawrence 215
 - liberal democratic jurisdictions
 - transnational cooperation 11, 25
 - Lisbon Treaty 12
 - location data
 - Bluetooth technology 15
 - Covid-19 contact-tracing 14–16
 - GDPR provisions 15
 - GPS tracking 14–15
 - Lynskey, Orla 6
- M
- McIntyre, TJ 5
 - Macron, Emmanuel 211
 - Maiani, Francesca and Migliorini, Sara 203, 205
 - Malone v United Kingdom 155
 - malware spill-over 121, 129–130, 132, 135–136
- Merkel, Angela 211
 - Michaels, Ralf 227
 - mobile phones
 - contact-tracing apps 14–16
 - Moshell, Ryan 29–30
 - Murray, Andrew and Reed, Chris 208
 - mutual legal assistance system (MLA)
 - Cybercrime Convention and 161–162
 - direct contacts with private parties 165–167, 171–172
 - enforcement 162
 - EU and EU Member States 163
 - GDPR and 169
 - Irish practice 139, 142
 - national sovereignty and 162–163, 166
 - new alternatives to 160–162
 - shortcomings 162–163, 172
 - treaties (MLATs) 122, 123, 136, 157, 158, 159, 162
 - United States 122, 123, 136, 162–163, 169
- N
- network investigative techniques
 - CLOUD Act 5, 119–121, 129–132
 - New York Covenant on Civil and Political Rights 180
 - Newsom, Gavin 37
- O
- Obama, B 191
 - Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)
 - cross-border data flows 187
 - Privacy Guidelines 191
- P
- passenger name record (PNR) data
 - EU-Canada PNR Agreement 198, 208
 - generally 13
 - pen registers
 - CLOUD Act 119, 123–124
 - generally 133
 - US Pen/Trap Statute 123–124
 - personal data protection
 - EU see European Union personal data protection
 - geoblocking technology 49, 55, 56, 57, 92, 96
 - right to, generally 56
 - personally identifiable information (PII)
 - United States 32–33
 - Pollicino, Oreste 4

Privacy Shield

- extraterritorial application of EU data protection 111–114
- generally 169
- invalidation 110, 111–114, 169–171, 200, 220
- Ombudsman mechanism 170
- primacy of US law enforcement requirements 170
- Schrems II* decision 2, 18, 87–88, 107–114, 169–171, 200
- self-certification 108

private companies

- burden shift to 5
- EU jurisprudence 13–14
- General Data Protection Regulation 35
- United States 30, 35–36, 38–39
- US legitimate business purpose exception 38–39

private and family life

- Charter of Fundamental Rights 13, 76–77, 83, 85
- ECHR 11–12, 48, 82

proportionality principle

- Digital Rights Ireland* 86, 105–106
- right to be forgotten 55
- Schrems II* decision 5, 112–113, 159, 170
- voluntary disclosures 153 public-private data sharing

- criminal investigations 165–167, 171–172
- United States 31

Q

Quinn, John 3–4, 216, 226

R

Reno v Condon 39–40

right of communication

- New York Covenant 180
- United Nations Charter 180

right to be forgotten

- circumscribing 57–62
- competing regulatory regimes, where 63
- constitutional backing 77
- content providers and 65, 76
- Data Protection Directive 48, 91–92
- dereferencing requests 47–62
- domestic regulatory regimes and 64–71
- ECJ jurisprudence 10, 16–18, 47–62, 63–64
- EU data protection law 10, 16–18, 19–23, 24, 47–62, 63–64, 66–71, 94–96

EU and domestic law, parallel applicability 4, 72–79

EU subsidiaries 51, 58

EU's multilevel structure 63–64, 79

excessive, data deemed 48, 52

freedom of information/free speech and 23, 59–60, 65, 75–76

General Data Protection Regulation 3–4, 48, 58, 92

generally 47–49, 56

geoblocking technology 49, 55, 56, 57, 92, 96

German Federal Constitutional Court decisions 64–79

Germany, right of personality 65, 77

Glawischnig-Piesczek v Facebook 4, 20–21, 22, 23, 24, 49, 58–59, 90–96

Google Inc v Equustek Solutions Inc 21–22, 23

Google Spain SL v AEPD 16–17, 18–19, 48, 50–54, 60–61, 73–74, 86–87, 99

Google v CNIL 3–4, 19–20, 22, 23, 24, 47–62, 90–96

inadequate, irrelevant or no longer relevant data 48, 52–53 incomplete or inaccurate data 48

legally published information 62

links to data, erasure 53, 55

meaning 50

multilevel constitutionalism 63–64, 66–71

other interests balanced against 74

other rights balanced against 74–76

proportionality principle 55

right to access information and 50, 52–54, 55, 56, 57, 59–62

search engines and 16, 47–62, 66, 76

territorial extent 19–23, 24, 48, 50–62, 90–96

X v Twitter 22

right to privacy

see also data privacy protection; European Union personal data protection

ECHR 11–12, 48, 82

economic approach see economic approach to privacy

EU Charter of Fundamental Rights 13, 66, 81, 83

negative right 82

positive right 82

United States 81, 82

Roberts CJ 43

Russian Federation

- digital sovereignty 222
- generally 25

SSafe Harbour scheme

- EU-US data transfers 18, 87–90, 102–103, 108, 115–116
- principles 102–103
- replacement 108, 168–169
- Schrems I* 18, 103, 110, 115–116, 168–169
- self-certification 103

Saugmandsgaard Øe AG 110Schmitt, Carl 214Schrems, Max 100–101, 110Schrems I* and *Schrems II

- adequacy assessment of US regulations 2, 197–198
- dimensions of extraterritoriality 99–116
- domestic production orders 169–171
- essence of fundamental rights 18, 100, 104–108, 116
- essentially equivalent protection 88, 103, 196, 200, 208
- foreign law, examination 100, 107–108, 112, 114, 116, 196, 200, 208, 220
- generally 4, 17–18, 84, 87–90, 97, 99–101, 159, 201, 202
- interpretation of EU fundamental rights 100
- Privacy Shield decision 2, 18, 87–88, 107–114, 169–171, 200, 220
- procedural DPA power 109–110, 111
- proportionality principle 5, 112–113, 159, 170
- rationality of extraterritoriality 115
- Safe Harbour decision 18, 103, 110, 115–116, 168–169
- US mass surveillance of EU citizens 18, 100–101, 104, 112, 115
- US reaction to 107–111, 115

Scott, Joanne 192–193, 196, 201–202, 206search engine operators

- data as consideration for services 181, 182
- data controller, categorised as 52, 58
- dereferencing requests 47–62
- EU right to be forgotten and 16, 50–51, 65, 76, 77–78
- EU subsidiaries 51, 58
- geoblocking technology 49, 55, 56, 57, 92

- Google Spain SL v AEPD* 16–17, 18–19, 48, 50–54, 60–61, 73–74, 86–87, 91–92, 194–195

links to personal data, erasure 53, 55 right to conduct business 74 sufficiently effective measures 57

service providers/tech companies

CLOUD Act 125, 127, 160, 161–162, 174–175, 215

Cybercrime Convention 164

data localisation/nationalisation 157, 173, 221–222

direct cooperation with law enforcement 139–157, 158, 159, 165–172, 165n

foreign servers 119, 121, 122, 133, 136, 160, 216, 220

government surveillance, technical assistance from providers 126, 127, 128, 133

Irish, voluntary disclosure by 139–140

Irish subsidiaries, generally 140–146

Smith, Stephen 4–5, 224Snowden, Edward 100, 103, 168, 222Sotomayor J 43sovereignty

see also digital sovereignty; territorial sovereignty concept, generally 213–214

data sovereignty 11, 25, 185, 217

Spain

Google Spain SL v AEPD see Google Spain SL v AEPD

Standard Contractual Clauses

extraterritorial application 18, 88–89, 101, 110–111, 169, 169n, 195–196, 208

Stuxnet malware 135surveillance measures

cellphone tracking 119–120, 127–129, 133

CLOUD Act see Clarifying Lawful Overseas Use of Data (CLOUD) Act

cross-border, generally 119–121, 132–137

digital 133

direct/indirect collection distinction 133

inherently discriminatory 115

national legislation 13

network investigative techniques 5, 119–121, 129–132

real-time surveillance in foreign country 5, 119–120

technical assistance from provider 126, 127, 128, 133