

Contents

Introduction: The Importance of Gender Perspective in the Judiciary	1
Susanne Baer, Ivana Jelić, and Ivana Krstić
Part I Courts	15
First Ladies on the Bench. A European Perspective on Gender and the Judiciary in the Interbellum Years	17
Marion Röwekamp
Gender Diversity in the Judiciary: A Matter of Law? An Approach Under the European Court of Human Rights	41
Saadet Yüksel
Gender Equality in Serbian Judiciary—An Examination of the State of Play	59
Ana Knežević Bojović and Monika Milošević
Part II Lawyers, Notaries	85
The Position of Female Attorneys in Montenegro in Comparison to Other Legal Professions: Between a Minority and a Majority	87
Matija Stojanović
Access to Justice Through Public Notary Service in the Republic of Serbia: How Can the Gender Perspective Move Things Forward? ...	109
Nenad Tešić and Ljubinka Kovačević
Part III Judicial Decisions	141
Can Gender Shape the Course of Justice? Some Insights from the European Court of Human Rights	143
Marko Bošnjak and Alice Leconte

Gender and Judiciary System in Spain From a Labor Perspective	167
Eva Bermúdez Figueroa and Raquel Pastor-Yuste
Gender Representation in the Brazilian Judiciary: Reflections Upon a Case Study of the Right to Abortion	193
Luana Mathias Souto and Jessica Holl
Overcoming Gender Bias in the Justice System’s Response to Violence: A Call for Enhanced Academic and Professional Training	211
Oana Băluță
Part IV Doctrine	235
Gender Competent Legal Education of Criminal Justice Professionals—Case of Intimate Partner Violence	237
Natalija Lukić
Reframing Evidentiary Reasoning through a Gender Perspective	263
Marianela Delgado Nieves
A Feminist Critique of Traditional Patriarchal Professional Stereotypes: The Example of the Czech Custody Justice System	285
Kateřina Šimáčková
Abortion in the U.S. After Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization. A Comparative Perspective	305
Rosalba Potenzano and Guido Smorto
Part V Conflicts of Rights	337
Discrimination of Women Under Sharia Law and the Molla Sali Judgment of the ECHR	339
Ioannis Ktistakis
Part VI Histories	351
Roman Woman on Trial: Limited Access to Justice	353
Mirjana Miškić
Gender and the Judiciary in Medieval Serbia	367
Nina Kršljanin	