

CONTENTS

List of figures and tables	vii
List of contributors	ix
World map	xiv
Introduction	1
Evelyn Arizpe and Gabrielle Cliff Hodges
SECTION 1
Making adolescent reading choices visible	17
1 The possibilities of comics reading: Uncovering a complex and situated reading experience in Canada	19
Lucia Cedeira Serantes
2 The residue of fiction in the memory of adolescence: The potential effect of reading fiction in Turkey	39
Osman Coban
3 Rivers of reading: A research method to explore young adults' personal reading histories	55
Gabrielle Cliff Hodges

SECTION 2

Adolescent reading in times of crisis 71

- 4 Reading fears and opportunities: Researching changes over 25 years in the literacy practices of Mexican adolescents 73
Evelyn Arizpe and Laura Guerrero Guadarrama
- 5 Young adults' attitudes towards reading in Lebanon 89
Nayla Aramouni
- 6 'I think I was born with a suitcase': Blackfoot adolescent readers' responses to Sherman Alexie's The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian 106
Erin Spring

SECTION 3

Young adult readers' experiences within and beyond school and university 121

- 7 Adolescent reading habits: The effect of school activities on reading practices 123
Mireia Manresa
- 8 Young people reading in Uganda: Making connections between literature and reality 137
Rebecca Nambi
- 9 Exploring post-16 literature in English in a Malaysian classroom: A hermeneutic phenomenological perspective 149
Jia Wei Lim
- 10 Pressure, pleasure and function: Malaysian undergraduates reading across boundaries in a university in England 166
Su Li Chong
- Conclusion 181
Evelyn Arizpe and Gabrielle Cliff Hodges

- Index* 191