

Contents

Dakshinamurti Stotram	xiii
Preface	xix
Chapter 1 The Teacher and the Teaching	1
Captures the essence of Dakshinamurti's teaching through silence, gesture, and words
Chapter 2 The Mirror of Consciousness	14
Focuses on the beautiful metaphor of the city in the mirror and Consciousness as the ground of all experience
Chapter 3 The Cosmic Magician	32
Highlights the teaching about how Brahman manifests the universe through māyā, like a divine magician

- Chapter 4 The Great Recognition – “You Are That” . . . 47
Centers on the detailed analysis of Tat Tvam Asi and the technical exposition of this Mahavakya
- Chapter 5 The Light That Reveals All Light 75
Emphasizes how Consciousness makes all knowledge possible and the nature of enlightenment
- Chapter 6 Dissolving False Identities 87
Addresses the philosophical opponents and their mistaken views of the Self
- Chapter 7 The Unchanging Witness 102
Reveals the method of recognizing what remains constant through all states and stages
- Chapter 8 The Divine Paradox 109
Explores māyā’s power and how the one Consciousness appears to have become bound
- Chapter 9 The Universal Form 118
Presents the vision of the universe as the eight-fold body of Dakshinamurti
- Chapter 10 The Fruits of Awakening 128
Describes the results of realization: universal selfhood and divine powers

