
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
List of Abbreviations	xix
Prologue	1
Introduction	2
1. A Remarkable Job.....	2
2. How did All this Work Out?	3
3. My Story	5
4. Some Sensitive Cases	6
5. Other Individual Cases.....	8
6. Hearing of Asylum Seekers	9
7. The Asylum 'Kitchen'	10
1. 'Vox clamantis in deserto' ('The Voice that Cries in the Desert')	13
1.1. Preparations in a Period of 'Caretaking Business'.....	13
1.2. My First Steps as Commissioner General	14
1.3. Chairperson of the UN Commission on Human Rights	17
1.4. A Chinese Misunderstanding.....	19
1.5. Ghanaian Asylum-Seeker Networks.....	19
1.6. The Reception Conditions 'Crying Vengeance to Heaven' at the National Airport	21
1.6.1. 'Caretaking Business' under Martens VII	22
1.6.2. Repelling Responsibility under Martens VIII.....	23
1.7. 'Refugee Policy Collapses'	25
1.8. The Asylum Crisis in Switzerland	26
2. Patrick Ryan, an Irish Asylum Seeker	27
2.1. The Asylum Application Intersects with the Extradition Request.....	27
2.2. My Recommendation: Send Ryan to Ireland.....	28
2.3. Favourable Opinion of the Court on Extradition to the United Kingdom.....	30
2.4. Ryan not Extradited: Thatcher is Furious with Martens	31
2.4.1. The Transfer to Ireland	31
2.4.2. Margaret Thatcher Furious and Jean Gol Unleashed.....	32
2.5. Virulent Reactions in the Irish and British Parliaments	33

2.6.	British Rage Prevents a Fair Trial: No Extradition by Ireland.....	34
2.7.	PS: No Cowardice, but Fair Sharing of Responsibility	36
3.	'Nerves are Getting Tighter and Tenser'	38
3.1.	'The Commissioner General has Ideas but no Staff'	38
3.1.1.	'Time for Action'	38
3.1.2.	'The Commissioner General at the Wailing Wall'	39
3.2.	'Great Hordes of East Europeans'	40
3.3.	Third Annual Report: 'Extreme Generosity does not Solve Anything'	42
3.4.	Removing Illegal Aliens and Repartition of Asylum Seekers.....	43
3.4.1.	The Charters of Edith Cresson.....	44
3.4.2.	The Lint Reception Centre Hype.....	44
3.5.	The Law of 18 July 1991 Comes into Force.....	46
4.	Walid Bennani, an Islamist Refugee from Tunisia	48
4.1.	Ennahdha: A Democratic Fundamentalism?	48
4.2.	False Passport: Refusal of Access to the Territory.....	49
4.2.1.	My Favourable Opinion.....	49
4.2.2.	The Minister Disregards My Favourable Opinion	50
4.2.3.	The President of the Tribunal Assists: Deportation Ban	51
4.2.4.	The Conseil d'Etat also Helps: Suspension of the Order	52
4.3.	Access to Territory, to Leave within Five Days.....	53
4.3.1.	I Invoke All Possible Arguments	54
4.3.2.	The Minister Persists	55
4.3.3.	Waiting for Suspension and Annulment	57
4.4.	Finally Recognised, but Tunisia Insists	58
4.5.	PS: People's Representative in Tunisia	59
5.	From the 'Charters' Incident to a 'Revue'	60
5.1.	'My Charters'	60
5.1.1.	Reactions to an 'Electroshock'	62
5.1.2.	Firmness Appreciated	64
5.1.3.	The Dust is Settling.....	65
5.1.4.	The House Justice Committee.....	66
5.1.5.	PS: Frontex's 'Special Flights'	67
5.2.	Progress could not be Maintained	67
5.2.1.	An Influx of Ex-Yugoslavs	67
5.2.2.	Status of Displaced Persons from the Former Yugoslavia.....	68
5.3.	The 'Revue' of the Commission General.....	70
5.3.1.	The Fictional Press Conference	70
5.3.2.	A Monologue on Statistics.....	72
5.3.3.	The Ghanaians at Petit-Château	73

6. The Basque-Spanish Couple Moreno-Garcia	75
6.1. Unfavourable Opinion of the Court on the Extradition Requests	75
6.2. 'A Slap in the Face': Further Examination of their Asylum Application	76
6.3. A Thunderbolt: The President of the Tribunal Releases them	78
6.4. Spanish Relief: Moreno-Garcia not Recognised	80
6.5. Permanent Board Takes its Time	81
6.6. The Turning Point of Stefaan De Clerck: Extradition Granted	83
6.7. 'The Conseil d'Etat Disavows the Minister'	84
6.8. Minister Backs Down: Extradition Withdrawn	86
7. No Longer 'Mop under an Open Tap'	88
7.1. A Break in the Dyke and Quicksand	88
7.2. My Alarm is Heard	90
7.3. Sikhs: Fruit Pickers in South Limburg	92
7.4. Candidate in the European Elections	93
7.5. 'A Small Fracture in the Tourmalet'	97
8. Ahmed Zaoui, an Islamist Asylum Seeker from Algeria	100
8.1. Zaoui and the FIS in Algeria	100
8.2. First Asylum Application: Exclusion Clause Applied	101
8.3. The Permanent Board Confirms the Exclusion Clause	102
8.4. Brussels Court of Appeal: Four-Year Conditional Sentence	104
8.5. Second Asylum Application: No New Elements	105
8.6. Benothmane's 'Suicide'	106
8.7. Hot Potato Sent to Switzerland	107
8.8. Burkina Faso, Malaysia and New Zealand	108
9. 'Malaise at the CG' and 'Asylum Seeker "Deceased"'	110
9.1. 'Malaise at the Commission General'	110
9.1.1. The System of Awarding Points	111
9.1.2. My Impeachment Requested	111
9.1.3. 'Accusations Out of Ignorance, if not Bad Faith'	113
9.2. Finally, Some Good News	115
9.3. 'Failed Asylum Seekers Ill-Treated'	116
9.3.1. Reactions to Senator Germain Dufour's Accusations	116
9.3.2. 'Marie-Louise Dead in N'djili Jails'	117
9.3.3. 'I Read too Many Detective Novels'	119
9.3.4. 'Marie-Louise Risen'	119
9.3.5. The Seventh Annual Report (1994)	120

10. Séraphin Rwabukumba, Cousin of the Rwandan President	121
10.1. A Cousin of President Juvénal Habyarimana's Widow	121
10.2. Departure from Rwanda in a French Military Plane	122
10.3. Further Examination of His Asylum Application	123
10.4. 'Not a Land of Asylum': Application of the Exclusion Clause	123
10.5. 'Negationist': The Permanent Board Confirms Exclusion Clause	125
10.6. A Web of Asylum Applications	126
10.7. Order to Leave the Territory: The Conseil d'Etat Blows Hot and Cold	128
10.8. PS: Regularised, and Almost a Belgian Citizen	129
11. I Recognise Both Too Many and not Enough Refugees	131
11.1. 'Schemes at the Commission General'	131
11.1.1. Search at the Commission General	131
11.1.2. Fraud in the Asylum Procedure	133
11.1.3. Sita and the 'Zairean Network'	135
11.1.4. Harb and the 'Lebanese Network'	136
11.1.5. In the End, it was 'Much Ado about Nothing'	137
11.1.6. The First Marshal and the X Witnesses	137
11.2. Criticism from All Sides	139
11.2.1. The Leman Centre	139
11.2.2. The asbl 'Aid to Political Refugees'	141
11.2.3. Pieter De Gryse: 'Embellish' and 'Blacken'	143
12. Augustin Ndindiliyimana, Head of the Rwandan Gendarmerie	145
12.1. My Refusal for Omission	145
12.2. Recognition by the Permanent Board	147
12.3. Accused by the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal	148
12.4. Judgment of the Trial Chamber	148
12.4.1. Saint André College of Kigali and the Kansi Parish	149
12.4.2. The Responsibility of Ndindiliyimana	149
12.4.3. Mitigating Factors	150
12.5. Acquitted by the Appeals Chamber	151
12.6. PS: Some Observations	151
13. Unhappy with 'Economic Refugees' and My Status	154
13.1. The Statement of the Bishops of Belgium	154
13.1.1. My Letter to the Cardinal	154
13.1.2. 'What about "Economic Refugees"?'	155
13.1.3. Opinions Expressed in Newspapers	155
13.1.4. The Bishop's Nuance	157
13.2. The Commissioner General is Both Happy and Unhappy	157
13.2.1. 'Satisfied': My Eighth Annual Report	157
13.2.2. Dissatisfied with My Status and that of My Deputies	159

13.3.	En Route to the Court of Arbitration	161
13.3.1.	The European Commission and Court in Strasbourg	161
13.3.2.	My Appointment to the Court of Arbitration	164
13.4.	Some Thoughts	165
13.4.1.	My Exit Interview: 'Much Hypocrisy and Demagogy'	165
13.4.2.	Endless Criticism	167
14.	Peixotin, Maiztegui, Moreno-Garcia and Jaione	169
14.1.	Another Basque: Exiled in Venezuela	169
14.1.1.	Peixotin's 'Complicated Story'	170
14.1.2.	Peixotin's Application is 'Moot'	171
14.1.3.	The Demining Works: Peixotin Granted Access to the Territory	172
14.2.	And Another Basque: Exiled in Mexico	172
14.2.1.	Persistent Attempts to Drive Him Back to Mexico	173
14.2.2.	Further Examination of an Asylum Application by an EU Citizen	174
14.3.	Once Again Spain: EAWs for Moreno and Garcia	176
14.3.1.	Statute-Barred Facts: The Examining Judge Refuses the EAWs	177
14.3.2.	A Refusal by the Chamber of Indictment Despite Three Cassations	178
14.3.3.	Observations on the EAWs against Moreno-Garcia: Relief	178
14.4.	Jaione's Handover: Strasbourg Washes its Hands of the Matter	179
15.	A 'Never-Ending Quest' for Human Resources	181
15.1.	Step by Step Towards Progress	181
15.1.1.	'Savings' that Cost a Lot of Money	181
15.1.2.	A First Reinforcement: Too Little and Too Late	184
15.1.3.	Minister Louis Tobback Competent (Too Late): The Snowball Effect is Triggered	185
15.1.4.	The Turbo Effect of Minister Louis Tobback: From 3,000 to 1,000 Asylum Applications	188
15.2.	'What have We Learned?'	190
15.2.1.	The 'Snowball Effect'	190
15.2.2.	Costly 'Savings'	192
15.2.3.	The 'Cascade Effect'	193
15.2.4.	The Transfer from the Justice Ministry to the Interior Ministry	194
15.2.5.	The Junction of Responsibility for the Procedure and for the Reception	196

16. Asylum Legislation: 'Ping-Pong' between Legislator and High Courts	199
16.1. The Gol Law: Belgium Takes the Asylum Procedure into its Own Hands	199
16.1.1. The New Refugee Bodies: The French Model	200
16.1.2. The New Refugee Law: A Cumbersome Procedure	201
16.2. The Wathélet Law: Levelling the Angles	202
16.2.1. Limiting the Ministerial Intervention: A Step in the Right Direction	202
16.2.2. The Double Five Per Cent Rule: An Original Attempt	203
16.3. The Tobback Law: A Dynamic Approach	207
16.3.1. The President of the Tribunal has no Jurisdiction: A Rearguard Fight	208
16.3.2. Enforcement Notwithstanding Any Remedy: An Ambivalent Solution	209
16.3.3. Suspension before the Conseil d'Etat Reinstated: A Thunderbolt	212
16.3.4. The Asylum Procedure before the Conseil d'Etat: Problems of All Kinds	213
17. The Conseil d'Etat: The Bottleneck in the Asylum Procedure	216
17.1. The Vande Lanotte Laws (10–15 July 1996): Grunts in the Margin	216
17.1.1. Adaptation to Dublin and Schengen: No Procedural Relief	216
17.1.2. Asylum Recourse to the Conseil d'Etat: A 'Useful Remedy'?	218
17.2. Social Assistance: The Nerve of Asylum	219
17.2.1. Obligations Towards Foreigners Staying Illegally in the Territory	220
17.2.2. The Onkelinx Law (30 December 1992): Confusion on All Levels	221
17.3. The Judgment of 22 April 1998: The Court of Arbitration Understood it Otherwise	224
17.3.1. Social Assistance as Long as the Appeals Brought before the Conseil d'Etat are not Decided	224
17.3.2. The Consequences of the Judgment of 22 April 1998: All Records Broken	225
18. Semira Adamu, Removals and Regularisations	230
18.1. The Death of Semira Adamu: A Drama in Zaventem	230
18.1.1. Semira Adamu: Figurehead of Resistance against Removals	230
18.1.2. Her Stay at the Closed Reception Centre 127bis	231

18.1.3.	Reactions to the Death of Semira Adamu	231
18.1.4.	Minister Louis Tobback Resigns.....	233
18.2.	The Sequels to Semira Adamu: More Humane and Efficient	234
18.2.1.	The Vermeersch I Commission: The Inevitable Recourse to Legitimate Violence	235
18.2.2.	The Correctional Tribunal: Heavy Penalties	235
18.2.3.	The Vermeersch II Commission: Ethical Justification for Coercive Measures	237
18.2.4.	'Sudanese Transmigrants Badly Treated': 'Not Truthful'	238
18.2.5.	The Bossuyt Commission: Promoting Transparency and Dialogue	240
18.3.	Regularisation Commissions: Multiple Pitfalls	242
18.3.1.	Regularisation as a Favour.....	243
18.3.2.	Regularisation as a Right	243
18.3.3.	Status of a Candidate Regularised	244
18.3.4.	A Good Idea Only in Appearance.....	244
19.	Some Reflections	246
19.1.	The Cases of Famous Asylum Seekers	246
19.1.1.	The IRA Terrorist: Father Ryan	246
19.1.2.	The Four Basques: Moreno-Garcia, Peixotin and Maiztegui.....	247
19.1.3.	The Two Islamist Fundamentalists: Bennani and Zaoui	249
19.1.4.	The Two Rwandans: Rwabukumba and Ndindiliyimana	250
19.2.	Some Anecdotes	251
19.2.1.	Fraud of Nigerian Asylum Seekers.....	251
19.2.2.	Rwanda, the 'Land of a Thousand Hills'	253
19.3.	The Push and Pull Factors.....	256
19.3.1.	The Push Factors.....	256
19.3.2.	The Pull Factors	258
20.	An Extra: Criticism by a 'Renegade'	261
20.1.	Judges on Thin Ice	262
20.2.	The Precursors of Indirect Violations.....	263
20.2.1.	Moroccan: Lt-Col Amekrane v the United Kingdom	263
20.2.2.	A German from Virginia: Soering v the United Kingdom	264
20.3.	The Restraint Phase (before Mamatkulov and Askarov)	265
20.3.1.	The First Two Asylum Judgments	265
20.3.2.	Protection Beyond the Geneva Convention	266
20.3.3.	Slovak Roma: Čonka v Belgium	268
20.4.	Mamatkulov and Askarov v Turkey : 'An Excess of Power'	269