

Table of Contents

Editorial	107
Opinion
The Investigatory Powers Tribunal: Reflections on Seven Years as Its President Rabinder Singh	113
Bulletin: Strasbourg	124
Bulletin: EU Charter of Fundamental Rights	128
Articles
Law, Secrecy and the “Smothering Blanket” of National Security: How (Not) To Acknowledge Past Wrongs Kieran McEvoy and Daniel Holder	132
Written by Two Empires: The Convergence of the British and Chinese “National Security” Regimes in Hong Kong Sze Hong Lam	150
The Securitisation of Immigration: Trends and Challenges in Western Europe Arianna Vedaschi and Chiara Graziani	177
Institutional Systems as Rights Protections: Accountability and Oversight Mechanisms for National Security Agencies Danielle Ireland-Piper and Dominique Dalla-Pozza	196
Case and Comment
‘R’ S.A. v AW ‘T’ sp. z o.o. (C-225/22) Nabil H. Khabirpour and Ethan Smith	222
Seydi and Others v France (App. No.35844/17) Karin de Vries	229
Hora v United Kingdom (App. No.1048/20) Steve Foster	234

Danileț v Romania (App. No.16915/21)

Louize Hannah Knops

242

Book Review

251