

Contents

List of Figures, Diagrams and Tables IX

Abbreviations X

Notes on Contributors XII

Introduction 1

Manuel Herrero Sánchez, Jonatán Orozco Cruz and Pedro Cardim

PART 1

The Asiento: Foundations, Structure and Consolidation of a System

- 1 'Pocas piezas hay para tantos navíos': Business Ventures in Angola and Transimperial Slave Networks during the Portuguese Asientos

(1595–1640) 27

Miguel Geraldés Rodrigues

- 2 Slaving, Settlement and Social Ties: Iberians and Africans in the Rio Grande Estuary and the Caribbean, c. 1580–1600 48

David Wheat

- 3 The Guinea and Cape Verde Contract of 1589–1594: Financing Networks and Transatlantic Returns 75

Manuel F. Fernández Chaves

- 4 Global Networks, the Trade in Enslaved Africans and Peruvian Business Interests, 1580–1640

The Case of the Portuguese New Christian Manuel Bautista Pérez 98

Linda A. Newson

PART 2

Commercial and Diplomatic Networks in Control of the Transatlantic Trade in Enslaved Africans after 1662

- 5 Chains of Gains: toward a Global Approach to Studying the Benefits Derived from the Commerce in Enslaved Africans and Slave-Produced Commodities 125

Filipa Ribeiro da Silva

- 6 Reciprocity, Self-Organization and Flexibility in Transnational Slave Trade Networks
Foundations of Mercantile Collaboration in the Asientos of Juan Barroso, Nicolás Porcio and Baltasar Coymans (1675–1694) 154
Jonatán Orozco Cruz
- 7 Managing Transimperial Trade: Legal Representatives and Factors in the Coymans Asiento of 1685 172
Ramona Negrón
- 8 The Royal Company of Guinea: an Introductory Study 193
Maximiliano M. Menz
- 9 Manuel de Belmonte, the Asiento and the Deregulation of American Trade
Cosmopolitan Diplomatic and Mercantile Networks in a Transimperial Seventeenth-Century Context 213
Manuel Herrero Sánchez
- 10 The Compagnie de l'Assiente (1702–1712) and the Formation of the Plantation Economy of Saint-Domingue 242
Klaus Weber and Joseph Mainberger
- 11 Exiting the Asiento: Diplomacy and the Dutch Slave Trade during the War of the Spanish Succession 261
Wim Klooster

PART 3

Alternative Models of Administration and Participation in the Slave Trade, Contemporaneous with the Asiento

- 12 Revisiting the Atlantic African Contratos
Shedding New Light on Slaving Tax Farms in the Shadow of the Asiento de Negros (Sixteenth–Seventeenth Centuries) 283
Edgar Pereira
- 13 The Asiento's Role in the Changing Relationship between the State and the Merchant Community in the Context of the British Trade in Enslaved African People, c. 1660–1740 316
William A. Pettigrew

- 14 A South Atlantic Counterpoint: Facing the Asiento from Bahia
(c. 1585–1740) 333
Thiago Krause and Christopher Ebert
- Afterword 355
Alejandro García-Montón
- Index of Names, Places and Subjects 365