

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables	vii
1 Introduction: Beyond High Courts Matthew C. Ingram and Diana Kapiszewski	1
2 Reforms to the Public Prosecutor's Office in Brazil, Chile, and Mexico: The Role of Justice Sector Interest Groups Azul A. Aguiar-Aguilar	39
3 Operationalizing and Measuring Prosecutorial Independence: The Brazilian Case Ernani Carvalho and Natália Leitão	81
4 Public Defense and Access to Justice in a Federal Context: Who Gets What, and How, in the Argentinean Provinces Catalina Smulovitz	113
5 Judging Elections: Electoral Courts and Democracy in Latin America's Federal Systems Diana Kapiszewski, John Seth Alexander, and Robert Nyenhuis	143
6 The Electoral Court and Party Politics in Brazil Sidia Maria Porto Lima	183

7	Watching the Watchmen: The Role of the Brazilian Supreme Court's Chief Justice in Checking Lower Court Activism José Mário Wanderley Gomes Neto, Ernani Carvalho, Danilo Pacheco Fernandes, and Louise Dantas de Andrade	219
8	Judicial Councils in Mexico: Design, Roles, and Origins at the National and Subnational Levels Matthew C. Ingram	255
9	Transnational Protection of Human Rights in Latin America Mary L. Volcansek and Matthew C. Ingram	303
10	Comparative Law and Courts Studies: Some Reflections and Directions Martin Shapiro	335
	List of Contributors	355
	Index	359