

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Introduction: Why this book has been written	I
CHAPTER
1. Who are the Managers?	6
2. What are the qualities of a good Manager?	12
3. The Personal Qualities of the Manager	24
4. The Organizational Qualities of the Manager	44
5. The Technical Qualities of the Manager	73
6. Management by Conference	87
7. The Management Aspect of "Group" Organiza- tion	98
8. The Principle of "Double Link" Control	122
9. The Joint Consultative Committee	135
10. The "Social" responsibilities of the Manager	163
11. The Training and Selection of Managers	194
12. The Action Standards of the Manager	239
13. The Future of Management	250
 Appendices
(A) Agenda for a typical "Link" Meeting	260
(B) Joint Committee activities	260

CONTENTS

	PAGE
(C) How can we use Sub-normals?	263
(D) The Foreman as a Manager	264
(E) The Organization of a Joint Suggestion Scheme	267
(F) Some Notes on the Conference Method of Training Supervisors and Managers	270
Index	276