

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Maps	xiii
Foreword	xix
PART ONE: 1700–1760
1 Scotland in Great Britain	3
2 The Jacobite Challenge	31
3 The Union and the Economy	49
4 Roots of Enlightenment	64
5 The Parish State	84
PART TWO: 1760–1830
6 Scotland Transformed	105
7 The Rural Lowlands: the Old World and the New	124
8 Urbanization	152
9 The Disintegration of Clanship	170
10 The Old Regime and Radical Protest	196
11 Highlandism and Scottish Identity	231
PART THREE: 1830–1939
12 The World's Workshop	249
13 Politics, Power and Identity in Victorian Scotland	273
14 The Decline and Fall of Liberal Hegemony	299
15 The Scottish City	328
16 Religion and Society	363
17 Educating the People	389

CONTENTS

18	The Highlands and Crofting Society	413
19	Land, Elites and People	448
20	Emigrants	468
21	New Scots	486
22	Scottish Women: Family, Work and Politics	523

PART FOUR: 1939-2000

23	War and Peace	545
24	The Scottish Question	574
25	A Nation Reborn?	591
	Notes	619
	Further Reading	634
	Index	647