

Contents

List of contributors	vii
A critical introduction to Non-Human Rights Alexis Alvarez-Nakagawa	1
1 Residual humanism Colin Dayan	13
2 On the juridical existence of animals: the case of a bear in Colombia's Constitutional Court Edward Mussawir	20
3 Why nature has no rights Alain Pottage	39
4 The rights of robots David J. Gunkel	66
5 Who is the subject of (non) human rights? Alexis Alvarez-Nakagawa	88
6 Deliberate legal equivocations: making non-human persons, multiplying differences Ciméa B. Bevilaqua	118
7 The EU Charter on Rights of Nature – colliding cosmovisions on non/human relations Marie-Catherine Petersmann	141
8 A diplomacy for human/non-human relations: letter to a young climate activist Oscar Guardiola-Rivera	164
9 More-than-human rights to data Jannice Käll	189

10	Decentring the human or rescaling the state? Grassroots movements for the 'rights' of nature in the United States Erin Fitz-Henry	206
11	Non-Human Rights, Amazonian ecocide and Davi Kopenawa's counter-ethnography of merchandise people Idelber Avelar	223
12	Do androids dream of having rights? Costas Douzinas	240
	Index	256