

Contents

Acknowledgments, ix

I. An Intellectual Biography of Philo?, 1

PART ONE: PHILO AS AMBASSADOR AND AUTHOR IN ROME

2. Philo's Self-Fashioning in the Historical Writings, 25

3. Power, Exile, and Religion in the Roman Empire, 47

4. Roman Philosophy and the Jews, 69

PART TWO: PHILO'S EXPOSITION IN A ROMAN CONTEXT

5. Creation Theology and Monotheism, 93

6. Character and History in the Lives of the Biblical Forefathers, 109

7. Biblical Ladies in Roman Garb, 131

8. Stoic Ethics in the Service of Jewish Law, 149

PART THREE: YOUNG PHILO AMONG ALEXANDRIAN JEWS

9. Biblical Commentary, 173

viii Contents

10. A Platonic Self, 192

11. An Utterly Transcendent God and His Logos, 209

12. Stoicism: Rejected, Subverted, and Advocated, 225

Epilogue: Philo at the Crossroads of Judaism, Hellenism, and Christianity, 242

Appendix 1: Philo's Dates and Works, 245

Appendix 2: Did Philo Write an Allegorical Commentary on Genesis Chapter 1?, 247

Notes, 251

Bibliography, 281

General Index, 311

Index of Ancient Sources, 320