

Contents

1	The Anthropocene – A Stage in the Process on the Margins of the Earth’s History?	1
2	From the Domestication of the Human Being to the Civilizing of Cultures Answering the Question of Whether Humanity is Capable of Taming Itself	24
3	The Ocean Experiment From Nautical Globalization to a General Ecology	35
4	The Synchronized World Philosophical Aspects of Globalization	45
5	What Happened in the 20th Century? Toward a Critique of Extremist Reason	55
6	The Thinker in the Haunted Castle On Derrida’s Interpretation of Dreams	82
7	Deep Observation Toward a Philosophy of the Space Station	106
8	The Persistent Renaissance The Italian Novella and News of Modernity	111
9	Heidegger’s Politics Postponing the End of History	127
10	Odysseus the Sophist On the Birth of Philosophy from the Spirit of Travel Stress	154

11 Almost Sacred Text
 Essay on the Constitution 178

12 The Other Logos, or the Reason of Cunning
 On the Intellectual History of the Indirect 187

Editorial Note 213

Notes 215