

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	x
Introduction—Wicked Prisms: Monstrosity as Vor-Schein Michael Mark Chemers and Analola Santana	1
PART I
The Monster as Signal	11
1 The Monstrous Body as a Discursive Body: Umro Ayyar — A New Beginning Offering a Utopian Possibility for Pakistan Subbah Mir and Maryam Naeem	13
2 “There Be Dragons....Awashed in the New World” Quanda Johnson	31
3 The Monstrous-Feminine in Performances by Florentina Holzinger Ekaterina Trachsel	45
4 Many Monsters in One: Ipi Zombi? and Post-Apartheid South African Sociophobics Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr.	55

5	“Who’s the Monster?”: Naming the Monster as Performative Act in Koreeda Hirokazu’s Monster (2023) Jessica Nakamura	71
PART II
	Looking Through the Monster’s Eyes	83
6	“Here Comes the Hurricane”: Confronting Environmental Monstrosity through Comedic Performance Xochitl S. Clare	85
7	Haunting the Genre: The Transformative Power of Immersive Performance in Haunted Attractions Riana Slyter	104
8	Walk Toward the Sunset : Epidemic as Test in Melungeon Narrative E.J. Westlake	121
9	Revenge of the Monster Queer: The Cosmic Horror and Eldritch Liberation of Drag Quest Sky Zeidler	142
10	Dancing with/the Monster: Coming of Age, Female Sexuality, and Healing through Monstrosity Natalie Zervou	162
PART III
	The Monster is Us	179
11	Fearing the Monster Within: Abjection and Empathy in The Whale Jennifer-Scott Mobley	181
12	Dreams of Carcosa: The Utopian Space of Weird Horror and Theatre or a Reparative Reading of The King in Yellow Ian Downes	195

13	Monstrous Embodiments: The Artistic and Political Potential of Drag Practices in Buenos Aires Agustina Trupia	209
14	Vultures and Mud: The Transformational Ecologies of Ochún Ibú Kolé Solimar Otero	224
15	Teratological Becoming(s): Exploring Black Religion through Monstrous Performance DeAnna Daniels	240
	Index	256