

Contents

1	Introduction: Concepts and Contexts of Psychological Wounding	1
	Canonical Cultural Trauma Theory and Emerging Critical Perspectives	4
	The Case for a Reconceptualization of Trauma	7
	Wound Narratives from the Global South	9
2	Aminatta Forna	13
	Fictional Representations of Traumatic Disintegration in The Memory of Love	15
	Prolonged and Insidious Trauma in The Devil that Danced on the Water	22
	Narrative Critique of the PTSD Category in Happiness	32
	Narrative Negotiations of a Context-specific Trauma Model	39
	Complicated Witnessing in The Devil that Danced on the Water	44
	Unempathic Gazing and Professional Witnessing in Happiness	51
	Post-traumatic Resilience in Happiness	56
3	Isabel Allende	69
	Writing during Trauma in Paula	71
	Fictional Representations of Childhood Trauma in Portrait in Sepia	76
	Inscriptions of Trauma in Landscape: Exile and Mental Dislocation	83

vi Contents

Resurfacing of Wounds in Storytelling 89
Epistolary Narration in Articulating Bereavement 94
Magical Realist Elements in Representing the Unspeakable 99
Photography as a Testimonial Practice in Portrait in Sepia 104
Narrating 'Belonging' in My Invented Country 110

4 Anuradha Roy 115

*Fictional Representations of Prolonged Childhood
Violence* 116
*Topographic and Architectural Manifestations of Traumatic Unhomeliness in An Atlas of Impossible
Longing* 123
Familial Disintegration and Unhomeliness 130
Self-Awareness and Transgression of Forms in Articulating Trauma 136
Epistolary Elements and Narrative Authority 143

5 Conclusion: Connecting Trauma Narratives in the Global South 152

Inscriptions of Complex Wounds 152
Towards Conceptual Inclusivity 158

Bibliography 163
Index 170