

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction: An Anthropological History of AI Angela K. VandenBroek, Matt Artz and Lora Koycheva	1
PART I
Contexts & Frameworks	25
1 A Hinge for Ethnographic Interventions in AI Systems: Interlocking the Past, Present, and Future Libuše Hannah Vepřek and Rebecca Carlson	27
2 Co-Becoming with AI: An Anthropological Framework for Equitable Human-AI Systems Matt Artz	45
3 The Mythical Speech of Artificial Intelligence: The Imaginary of an Autonomous Agency Andrés Pachón	66
4 The Wind Under the Door: Pareidolia and ChatGPT as a Feared and Welcome Guest John N. A. Brown	83

PART II
Critical Perspectives	101
5 The Bullshit Problem: Re-Thinking the Epistemic Stakes of AI Angela K. VandenBroek	103
6 Dissecting Speech, Manufacturing Difference: Troubling the ‘Acoustic Linguistic Divide’ in Artificial Intelligence Edward B. Kang and Juana C. Becerra	122
7 AI-powered Accessibility: Inclusive Co-design and Disability Expertise in AI-Powered Workplace Accessibility Sydney Yeager	136
PART III
Sociotechnical Interactions	157
8 Navigating the Uncanny Valley: How Conversation Designers Shape Human-AI Interaction Elizabeth Rodwell	159
9 Partners in Conversation Larry Sommer McGrath	177
10 From Present Tense to Future (Im)perfect: The Role of Anthropology in the Future of AI Kate Sieck	199
Conclusion: Editorial Forum on the Futures of Anthropology and AI Lora Koycheva, Matt Artz and Angela K. VandenBroek	216
Index	234