

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Space, time, and geopolitics of Catholicism	4
A short note: on the spatial in (the study of) global politics	7
A second short note: on the temporal in (the study of) global politics	9
Temporality and geopolitics of religion	11
Temporality and geopolitics of Christianity	13
Theoscaples and geopolitics of Catholicism	17
The Catholic Church and Catholicism in global politics	23
1 The Catholic Church in Brazil: the lost monopoly	36
Colonial Catholicism in Brazil	40
Post-independence Catholicism: the search for a new equilibrium	45
The Catholic continentalism and liberation theology	51
The rise and rise of Evangelicalism	57
The Catholic Charismatic renewal	61
2 Catholicism in the United States: a house divided?	68
Catholicism in the USA: an overview	68
From the Republican to the subcultural Catholicism	73

- After the subculture: the great diversification of American Catholicism* 77
- The rise of Catholic neo-traditionalism* 82
- Neo-traditionalism and the Catholic culture wars* 86
- 3 Indian Catholicism: a vibrant microcosm under threat 91
- Catholicism in India: a basic overview* 91
- The multiplicity of geopolitical theoscapes of Indian Catholicism* 95
- St. Thomas Christians and the Portuguese: Indigenous Christianity meets the Latins* 100
- The padroado vs. Rome* 106
- Catholic strategies beyond the Estado da Índia* 110
- Indian Catholicism in the post-Portuguese period* 116
- The caste system and the emergence of the Dalit theoscape* 119
- Indian Catholicism and the growth of Hindu nationalism* 123
- 4 Catholicism in China: between great hopes and stagnation 131
- Introduction* 131
- The problem of Sinicization and the double loyalty of Chinese Catholics* 136
- Chinese Catholicism in numbers* 139
- The beginnings of the Christian presence in China* 141
- Jesuits in China and the theoscapes of accommodation* 143
- The Chinese Rites Controversy* 145
- Chinese Catholicism during the colonial period and the struggle over Sinicization* 147
- The transformation of Chinese Catholicism in communist China* 150
- 5 The Democratic Republic of the Congo: the rise of a different Catholicism 163
- The idiosyncratic nature of Congolese Catholicism* 165
- The advent of Christianity in Congo* 170
- A note on Catholicism and slavery* 172
- The emergence of indigenous Catholicism in Congo* 174

The transformation of Congolese Catholicism during the colonial period 179

Re-emerging indigenous theoscapes after independence 184

Conclusion 190

6 The geopolitics of global Catholicism:
a conclusion (or is it?) 194

References 201

Index 233