

Special Issue

The European Court of Human Rights Versus Illiberal and Authoritarian Practices

Edited by Andreas Follesdal, Jan Petrov, and Alain Zysset

Editorial

Andreas Follesdal, Jan Petrov, and Alain Zysset, The European Court of Human Rights Versus Illiberal and Authoritarian Practices: Challenges and Responses 1

Articles

Daniella Lock, Strasbourg's Open Door to Normalisation in National Security Adjudication 9

Adam Krzywoń, Defamation Before the European Court of Human Rights: Addressing Illiberal Practices Within the Free Marketplace of Ideas 37

Joseph Finnerty, Confronting Authoritarian Practices Through Procedural-Based Review: The Case of the Polish Rule of Law Crisis 70

Renáta Uitz, Recalibrating Human Rights in Europe: A Call to Awaken the Principle of Non-Retrogression 95

Mariana Almeida Kato and Alice Lopes Fabris, Delays in the Inter-American Human Rights System in Responding to Human Rights Violations During Bolsonaro's Government (2019–2022) 127

Andreas Follesdal, The European Court of Human Rights Against Authoritarian Populism: Why? And How? 170