

Contents

Foreword by Robin Milner-Gulland	9
Introduction	23
PART ONE: THE ICON AND THE WORLD	35
1 Venerated Image: The Sacred in the Everyday	37
The Burden of Numbers, 38 – The Details of Ritual, 57 – Miracles, 85
2 Dispute about Signs, Dispute about Faith	119
The Ambivalence of Symbols, 120 – The Complications of Renaming: A Tract Concerning the New Devotion, 134
3 In a World without Grace	143
The Shadow of Antichrist, 144 – The Sacralization of the Icon Painter, 167 – The Theology of the People, 184
PART TWO: THE ICON AND POPULAR CULTURE	199
4 East and West	207
Face and Countenance, 224 – Landscape, 232 – Word, Emblem, Heraldry, 249 – The Portrait Icon, 280
5 The Middle Ages Delayed	301
Concealed Montage, 302 – Myth and Mystification: Self-awareness in the Icon-painting Experience, 326
6 Icons and Popular Art	345
The Aesthetics of Sensibility, 345 – The Spirit of Religious Tradition, 351 – The Projection of Signs: Icon, Lubok, the Avant-garde, 361
References and Editorial Notes	383
Bibliography	391
Index	403