

Brief Contents

| | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| Detailed Contents | vii |
| Introduction | xi |

PART I. THE THEORETICAL, HISTORICAL, AND CONSTITUTIONAL CONTEXT

| | |
|--|----|
| 1. Overcoming the Wars of Religion: The Enlightenment and the Constitutional Enshrinement of Institutional Secularism | 3 |
| 2. Repoliticized Religion and the Dialectic Between Religious Appropriation of Politics and Political Appropriation of Religion | 29 |
| 3. Religious Nationalism and Religious Populism: Religious Rule of the Nation and the People Versus National and Popular Acculturation of Religion | 49 |
| 4. The Dynamic Between Institutional and Ideological Secularism and Its Uses in Anti-Secular Attacks in the Name of Religion | 69 |

PART II. APPLICATIONS: ILLIBERAL AND ANTI-PLURALIST RECASTING OF FUNDAMENTAL CONSTITUTIONAL AND HUMAN RIGHTS IN THE NAME OF RELIGION

| | |
|---|-----|
| 5. Secularism as Religious Majoritarianism | 101 |
| 6. The War on "Gender Ideology" | 127 |
| 7. Reinventing Traditions to Subvert Constitutional Law and the International Human Rights Regime | 177 |
| Conclusion | 233 |
| Bibliography | 237 |
| Index | 251 |