

---

---

Contents

Synopsis	ix
Enduring Legacy and Complex Realities of Paramilitarism. An Introduction	1
DMITAR TASIĆ AND ALEKSANDAR R. MILETIĆ
1. “To Undertake Police Duties in a Foreign Land”: Greek Macedonian Komitadjis Between Irredentism and Ottoman Paramilitarism (1904–1908)	13
TASOS KOSTOPOULOS
2. “To Defend the Integrity of our Territory”: Paramilitarism and Anti-Diplomacy in the Greek-Albanian Borderlands, 1913–1914	37
CHRISTOPHER KINLEY
3. Resilience and Rupture of Paramilitarism in the Balkans and Caucasus	59
TETSUYA SAHARA
4. Protecting the Empire in the Borderlands: The Case of the Mitrovica Battalions (1917–1918)	77
JOVO MILADINOVIĆ
5. Exploding Patriotism? Quasi-State Paramilitary Formations and the Wave of Terrorism in Hungary in the First Years of the Horthy-Era, 1922–1924	101
BALÁZS KÁNTÁS
6. Soldiers Remobilized in the East European Borderlands: The Green Partisans, 1918–1925	121
ALEKSANDRA POMIECKO

7. Paramilitarism in Silesia 1918–1947 IVANA KOLÁŘOVÁ AND ONDŘEJ KOLÁŘ	139
8. Paramilitarism as a Way of Knowing: Second World War Yugoslav Chetniks as Case Study STEVAN BOZANICH	155
9. Quasi-State Paramilitarism in Georgia in the Early 1990's SHUKUKO KOYAMA	173
10. Bitter Herbs on Bitter Wounds: The Use of Felons in State Security and Paramilitarism MARIA VIVOD	191
11. Between Military and Paramilitary: Serbian Auxiliary Forces in Kosovo, 1998–1999 ALEKSANDAR R. MILETIĆ AND DMITAR TASIĆ	213
Contributors	249
Index	253