

Contents

List of contributors	viii
1 Introduction to the Research Handbook on Domestic Violence and Abuse Mandy Burton, Vanessa Bettinson, Kayliegh Richardson and Ana Speed	1
PART I DEFINING DOMESTIC ABUSE AND CONTEXTS
2 Defining coercive control: Problems and possibilities Cassandra Wiener	9
3 Sharing and/or threatening to share private, sexual images without consent as an emerging strategy of coercive control Charlotte Bishop	29
4 Chronic sexual violation Tanya Palmer	44
5 Silent suffering: LGBTQ+ intimate partner violence unveiled Esra Ummak	62
6 The intersection of domestic violence, culture, social marginalisation and entrapment for Indigenous Women Denise Wilson	77
7 Christianity and domestic abuse Rebecca Barnes and Kristin Aune	95
8 Conceptualising domestic abuse in human rights law Ronagh McQuigg	115
PART II PROTECTION ORDERS
9 Will domestic abuse protection notices and orders improve victim protection and assure the United Kingdom's compliance with the Istanbul Convention? Claire Bessant	131
10 Civil protection orders when crossing jurisdictional lines: Gaps in the law and a call for reform to better protect victims of domestic abuse Ana Speed and Lauren Clayton-Helm	150

- 11 'We're not the polite police': LGBTQ+ domestic and family violence victim-survivors' experiences with legal actors when seeking help via the civil protection order system in Australia 169
Ellen Reeves
- 12 Can law provide survivors with safety? Legal mobilization, legal consciousness, and protection order decision-making 185
Kathryn J. Spearman, Alesha Durfee, Jill Theresa Messing and Meredith E. Bagwell-Gray
- 13 The financial remedy application and beyond: To what extent is the victim-survivor protected from further abuse? 202
Kayliegh Richardson and Amanda Newby

PART III FAMILY COURTS

- 14 Domestic abuse, parental alienation and Family Court proceedings 224
Adrienne Barnett
- 15 Innovative approaches to addressing domestic abuse in family courts 251
Rosemary Hunter
- 16 Coercive control and the family courts: Comparative perspectives from Australia and England/Wales 269
Anna Carline, Patricia Easteal and Lisa Young
- 17 Self-represented litigants and family violence: A comparison between England and Wales and Australia 286
Jess Mant

PART IV CRIMINAL LAW AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

- 18 Court proceedings in which victims of domestic abuse are accused of offending 305
Katy Swaine Williams
- 19 Inaccessible to women – the general defences of duress and self defence 325
Susan Edwards
- 20 Preparing a public perceptions study on the use of violent resistance as self-defence in domestic abuse cases 346
Vanessa Bettinson, Thomas Crofts and Nicola Wake
- 21 Grooming, 'rough sex' and coercive control in the criminal law: 'Culturally mandated' sex and violence against women 366
Julia Tolmie, Paulette Benton-Greig and Nicola Gavey
- 22 Re-framing prosecutorial perceptions of 'justice': Towards the goal of 'thrivership' 384
Antonia Porter

23	Prosecuting and sentencing domestic abuse in Scotland Rachel McPherson	401
24	The law of evidence and the victim of domestic abuse Tony Ward and Natalie Wortley	418
	Index	435