

Contents

Global Green Crime and Ecojustice Daan van Uhm and Dina Siegel	1
Green Crime and Ecojustice	17
Planetary Health and Eco-Justice: Contributions from Green, Southern, Cultural and Decolonial Criminologies Nigel South	19
Greening Justice: Ecojustice and Remediating Environmental Harm Angus Nurse	41
Living, Dying, and Sharing a Planet Ragnhild Sollund	67
Conceptualizing Ecocide: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Daan van Uhm, Cedric Ryngaert, Susanne Knittel, and Marijke van Kuijk	89

Flora and Fauna Markets	117
The European Illegal Puppy Trade &amp; Organised Crime Jennifer Maher	119
Wildlife Trafficking in Spain: Causes, Consequences and Future Considerations Mònica Pons-Hernández	157
Not My Snake, Not My Circus: Customary Illegality and Moral Economies in the Bitis Trade Janine Heim	181
Wildlife Poaching in the COVID-19 World: A Retrospective Analysis of Poaching Trends Inside a Private Nature Reserve During the COVID-19 Lockdown Nick van Doormaal, Paul Allin, and Craig Spencer	207
Understanding and Navigating International Wildlife Trade Data: Avoiding Pitfalls Caused by Systemic Detail Obfuscation Orion L. B. Goodman, Michael F. Tlusty, and Andrew L. Rhyne	237
Culture, Politics and Social Constructions	271
Cockroach Races and Cricket Fights Dina Siegel	273
The Devastation of Sea Otters in the American Northwest. A Look From Eco Global History and Criminology (18th and 21st Centuries) Matilde Souto Mantecón and Inés Arroyo Quiroz	291
What Mercy? A Case Study of Mercy Release in Hong Kong Rebecca W. Y. Wong	317

- Photovoice for Ecojustice: Following the European Eel from the Sargasso Sea to the River Severn 335
Alison Hutchinson
- A Source of Disease, Health, or Both? Wildlife Consumption in China after the Emergence of COVID-19 365
Jessica Bell Rizzolo, Annah Zhu, and Ruishan Chen
- Conflict, Organized Crime and Crime Convergence 389
- Environmental Crimes, Illicit Economies and the Emergence of a Mekong Crime Complex 391
Mark Brown
- Environmental Crimes in East Siberia and Activities of Chinese Mafia 415
Andrey G. Anisimov
- The Climate Change–Migrant Smuggling Nexus: Smuggling Services as the Only Way to Reach Europe 447
Manuel Cabezas Vicente
- Environmental Crimes in Ukraine Under War Conditions 473
Anna Markovska, Oleksii Serdiuk, Angus Nurse, and Iryna Soldatenko
- The Hidden Toll: Women and Girls in the Intersection of Climate Change and Domestic Servitude 503
Nieves Sanz Mulas

Correction to: Conceptualizing Ecocide: Interdisciplinary Perspectives C1

Daan van Uhm, Cedric Ryngaert, Susanne Knittel, and Marijke van Kuijk

Index 527