

Contents

A Note from Leo Cherne, Chairman Emeritus	9
Refugees Flee the Nazis: A Small Band of Americans Respond	11
The Marseille Operation	15
The Aftermath of War	21
The Fight for Freedom Erupts in Hungary	27
Refugee Assistance Expands	39
The Long Saga of Indochinese Refugees	43
Thousands Flee Castro's Cuba	85
African Nations Struggle for Independence	93
Escape from China	97
Behind the Iron Curtain the Fight for Freedom Continues	103
The New Nation of Bangladesh Emerges	107
Turmoil in Chile Forces Out Thousands	117
Masses on the Move in Africa	119
The Desire for Democracy Endures Behind the Iron	125
Soviet Invasion Forces Five Million Afghans into Exile	129
Palestinian Refugees Receive Assistance	137
Persecution and Famine Engulf Africa	139
Crises in Cuba and Central America Uproot Thousands	147
IRC Supports Solidarność Inside Poland	153
Kurdish Refugee Emergency Leads to New Responses	155
Violence in Former Yugoslavia Threatens World Stability	161
IRC Helps Former Dissidents in Moscow	169
Atrocities in Africa Demand Best Efforts of World Community	171
Gains Are Made in Central America	181
At Last: Repatriation to Afghanistan	183
IRC Advocacy Campaign	184
IRC Freedom Awards	187
A Message from the Chairman, John C. Whitehead	189
Postlude	191