

Contents

List of Figures	xii
List of Tables	xiii
Table of Cases	xiv
Preface	xvi
Acknowledgements	xxi

Part I Foundations of Business Ethics

1	Introducing Business Ethics	3
	Overview	3
	Chapter Aims	3
	Historical Case #1 – The Enron collapse	4
	SECTION A. What is Business Ethics About?	6
	1.1 Antecedents and contemporary developments of business ethics	6
	1.2 Is business ethics profitable?	8
	1.3 Why companies engage in business ethics	10
	1.4 Normative vs. behavioural business ethics	12
	1.5 Scope of business ethics and ethical analysis	13
	Business Ethics in Action #1 – The Johnson & Johnson Credo and the Tylenol affair	16
	SECTION B. Introducing Ethics	19
	1.6 The human experience of morality	19
	1.7 Ethics as a systematic approach to morality	20
	1.8 Common insights of morality worldwide	22
	1.9 Subjective and social values vs. objective ethical values	24
	1.10 Goods, principles, and virtues	25
	Case Study #1 – Iam's dilemma	28
	Notes	29
2	Ethical Foundations for Business Ethics	33
	Overview	33
	Chapter Aims	33
	Historical Case #2 – The controversial launch of the space shuttle Challenger	34

SECTION A. Ethical Approaches: An Overview	36
2.1 Development of ethical theories: A concise historical view	36
2.2 Frequent ethical approaches for business ethics	39
2.3 Discussing ethical approaches in business ethics	48
2.4 Searching for a complete ethical theory	60
Business Ethics in Action #2 – The person-centred vision of François Michelin	63
SECTION B. Essentials of Aristotelian-Personalist Ethics	65
2.5 The human person – inherent dignity, innate rights and the pursuit of human fulfilment	65
2.6 Moral goods (ethical values) and the common good	68
2.7 Basic ethical principles	73
2.8 Fundamental virtues	82
Case Study #2 – A labour accident	87
Notes	88

Part II Individual Involvement in Business

3 Understanding Moral Responsibility	97
Overview	97
Chapter Aims	97
Historical Case #3 – The Volkswagen diesel emission test scandal	98
SECTION A. Concepts and Scope of Moral Responsibility	100
3.1 Responsibility, accountability and liability	100
3.2 For what is one responsible?	102
3.3 Modifiers of moral responsibility	103
3.4 Are we responsible for consequences?	105
3.5 Forms of individual responsibility	108
Business Ethics in Action #3 – Enrique Shaw: A responsible manager	111
SECTION B. Personal Responsibility within the Organization	113
3.6 Organizational influence on individual moral responsibility	113
3.7 Material cooperation with wrongdoing	114
3.8 Personal responsibility in whistleblowing	116
Case Study #3 – TEPCO and the Fukushima tsunami	118
Notes	119
4 Ethics in Decision-Making	121
Overview	121
Chapter Aims	121
Historical Case #4 – Bernard L. Madoff: Deciding on a financial model	122

SECTION A. The Ethical Dimension of Decision-Making	124
4.1 Elements of moral behaviour	125
4.2 Practical wisdom in formulating moral judgements	127
4.3 Full rationality in decision-making	130
4.4 Evaluative criteria in decision-making	132
Business Ethics in Action #4 – Malden Mills: An unusual decision	136
SECTION B. Making Moral Judgements in Decision Making	138
4.5 The Triple Font of Morality approach for making moral judgements	138
4.6 The Principle of Double Effect	142
4.7 Solving ethical dilemmas	144
Case Study #4 – Junseo's promotion	147
Notes	148
5 Frequent Misbehaviours and Irregular Payments	151
Overview	151
Chapter Aims	151
Historical Case #5 – Siemens: Accusations of bribery hit the company	152
SECTION A. Misbehaviours in Business and Finance	154
5.1 Some basic requirements of good behaviour	154
5.2 Business contracts – infringement and other misbehaviours	159
5.3 Misappropriation and fraud	162
5.4 Violation of trade secrets	165
5.5 Moral hazard and conflict of interests	166
5.6 Money laundering and tax evasion	168
5.7 Insider trading	170
Business Ethics in Action #5 – The Anti-Corruption Compliance Programme of ENI	172
SECTION B. Irregular Payments in Business	173
5.8 Bribery, extortion and other irregular payments	173
5.9 Morality of bribery and extortion	175
5.10 Damages of corruption and the fight against corruption	178
Case Study #5 – Preparing the Christmas sales campaign	183
Notes	184
6 Moral Character in Leadership	187
Overview	187
Chapter Aims	187
Historical Case #6 – Leadership shift in Arthur Andersen	188
SECTION A. Relevance of Character in Leadership	191
6.1 Leading organizations: Authority, not just power	191

6.2 Moral character and spirituality in leadership	193
6.3 Relational leadership and ethics	195
Business Ethics in Action #6 – TD Industries: Developing a servant leadership culture	198
SECTION B. Relevant Virtues in Leadership	200
6.4 Integrity as integration of virtues	200
6.5 Wisdom in leadership	202
6.6 Virtues for a good treatment	203
6.7 Virtues for trustworthiness	206
6.8 Self-mastery virtues	207
Case Study #6 – United Laboratories: Leadership and values	211
Notes	213

Part III Organizational Business Ethics

7 Free Market Economy and the Business Company	221
Overview	221
Chapter Aims	222
Historical Case #7 – Lehman Brothers and the subprime crisis	222
SECTION A. Business in the Free Market Economy	224
7.1 The ethical dimension of the market economy	225
7.2 Acceptable capitalism and the role of the government	227
7.3 Governmental regulations of economic activities	228
Business Ethics in Action #7 – AES Corporation: A values-driven company	231
SECTION B. Nature and Purpose of the Business Company	233
7.4 The company, a social institution and a community of persons	234
7.5 Views of the purpose of the business company	237
7.6 The common good as reference for the purpose of business	245
7.7 The purpose of the company: Serving people through a dual mission	247
7.8 The purpose of each company and ‘purpose-driven companies’	252
Case Study #7 – Suicides in France Télécom	253
Notes	255
8 The Right Use of Power in Business	263
Overview	263
Chapter Aims	263
Historical Case #8 – Building up the Parmalat holding	264
SECTION A. Managing Power Ethically	267
8.1 Power within the business company	267
8.2 Responsible use of power	269

8.3 'Human Quality Treatment' in managing people	272
8.4 Responsibility and virtues in managerial work	275
8.5 Stewardship in managing corporate resources	278
8.6 International standards for managing business responsibly	280
Business Ethics in Action #8 – Mondragón Corporation: The inclusive participatory company model	285
SECTION B. Ethics in Corporate Governance	287
8.7 Corporate governance for the common good	287
8.8 Good ethical practices of corporate governance	289
8.9 The question of executive compensation	292
8.10 Power and responsibility of shareholders	293
Case Study #8 – Recovering a company in crisis	294
Notes	295
9 Institutional Ethics and Organizational Ethical Culture	299
Overview	299
Chapter Aims	299
Historical Case #9 – Cambridge Analytica operational techniques	300
SECTION A. Institutionalizing Ethics into the Company	302
9.1 Institutional statements	304
9.2 Codes of business conduct	307
9.3 Integrity and compliance programmes	310
Business Ethics in Action #9 – Bill George's business vision	313
SECTION B. Ethics in Organizational Culture, Strategy and Structures	316
9.4 Organizational culture	316
9.5 Factors in building an ethical organizational culture	319
9.6 The ethical dimension of strategy	320
9.7 Ethics in organizational structure and the informal organization	321
9.8 Ethical principles in designing organizations	323
Case Study #9 – La Fageda: A social enterprise facing a problem	326
Notes	327
10 Ethics in Managing Work and Technology	333
Overview	333
Chapter Aims	334
Historical Case #10 – Questionable labour practices at Uber	334
SECTION A. Managing Work Ethically	338
10.1 Human work and its inherent dignity	338
10.2 Labour rights	341
10.3 Exploitative labour	346
10.4 Violence and harassment at the workplace	349

10.5 Diversity in the workplace: Unfair discrimination and justice	350
10.6 Decent work, meaningful work and developmental work	354
Business Ethics in Action #10 – Surgikos: From a maquiladora to a cellular manufacturing system	358
SECTION B. Ethics in Managing Technology, IT and AI	361
10.7 Technology as ally of work and instrumental for the common good	361
10.8 Ethical issues in developing, implementing and using technology	363
10.9 Ethical issues in using information technology	366
10.10 Ethics in artificial intelligence	369
10.11 The interaction between humans and technology	372
Case Study #10 – Using AI in a hiring process	375
Notes	376
11 Ethics in Sales and Marketing	381
Overview	381
Chapter Aims	381
Historical Case #11 – Sanlu: The melamine-tainted milk	382
SECTION A. Consumer Rights and Authentic Service	384
11.1 Consumer rights	384
11.2 Providing authentic service to customers	386
11.3 Ethics in market and marketing research	389
Business Ethics in Action #11 – Bimbo: Responsible marketing of a responsible company	391
SECTION B. Ethics in Marketing	393
11.4 Marketing and consumerism	393
11.5 Ethical issues regarding the product	394
11.6 Fair price and abuses in pricing	396
11.7 Promotion of the product: Advertising ethics	399
11.8 Ethics in placement of the product	402
11.9 Ethics in e-commerce	403
Case Study #11 – Solving a problem in commercial activity	404
Notes	405

Part IV Societal Business Ethics

12 Business Responsibility and Relationships in Society	409
Overview	409
Chapter Aims	409
Historical Case #12 – Responsibilities in the Bangladesh factory disaster at Rana Plaza	410

SECTION A. The Social Responsibility of Business	412
12.1 Criticisms and responses to the social responsibility of business	413
12.2 Individual or corporate responsibilities?	415
12.3 Mainstream approaches to the social responsibility of business	416
12.4 Sustainability and CSR	419
12.5 Ethical principles for CSR	420
Business Ethics in Action #12 – Stormberg AS: A responsible SME	423
SECTION B. Societal Relationships of Business	424
12.6 Corporate relationships with governments	424
12.7 Corporate responses to social demands and cooperation with NGOs	427
12.8 Corporate accountability: Auditing and reporting	428
Case Study #12 – Interquim: Involving employees in social responsibilities	431
Notes	433
13 Ecological Responsibilities and Sustainable Development	437
Overview	437
Chapter Aims	437
Historical Case #13 – Shell Africa: Environmental legacy, problems and prospects	438
SECTION A. Ecological Responsibility of Business	441
13.1 Natural resource depletion and diversity loss	441
13.2 Pollution, waste and climate change	444
13.3 The human–nature relationship, ecological ethics and integral ecology	446
13.4 Precautionary and proactive business actions	449
13.5 Waste management and product stewardship	452
Business Ethics in Action #13 – Patagonia, Inc.: ‘Doing good while doing well’	453
SECTION B. Business and Sustainable Development	455
13.6 Sustainable development and circular economy	455
13.7 The ESG criteria and socially responsible investing	458
13.8 Multinational and transnational corporations in a global world	460
13.9 Supply chain and offshore outsourcing	464
13.10 Integrating responsibility and sustainability into the organization	466
Case Study #13 – Botnia: A controversial paper pulp factory	467
Notes	469
Afterword	472
Index	476