

STUDIES

- Michaela Kuzmova – Božana Niševa: Chapters from the History of Czech-Bulgarian and Bulgarian-Czech Bilingual Lexicography:
from the Mid-19th Century to the Mid-20th Century 1–20
- Antoaneta Alipieva: Todor Zhivkov in Bulgarian Poetry:
The Collections The April Hearts from the 1980s 21–30
- Kornelija Kuváč: Intermediality and Narration of Trauma in the Novels
Belladonna and April in Berlin by Daša Drndić 31–48
- Marcel Černý: The Almost Forgotten Writer Dimo Petrov Syarov and His Place in Bulgarian-Czech Literary Relations. In the Margin of the Author's Prague Stories and the Czech Reception of His Work 49–77
- Milena Ivanović – Tanja Gaev: Ukrainian Fiction in Serbian Translation 78–93
- Katarina Ivon – Josip Uglešić: Childhood in the Novel Sjećanje šume
[Remembering Forest] by Damir Karakaš 94–109
- Dorota Gołek-Sepetliewa: Bulgarian Concentration Camp Literature
– Preliminary Remarks 110–121