

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
List of Contributors	xiii
Acknowledgments	xix
Introduction: Sexual Transgression as Social Metaphor Sara F. Matthews-Grieco	1
PART I: DEFAMED BUILDINGS AND SHAMED BODIES
1 Adultery, Cuckoldry and House-Scorning in Florence: The Case of Bianca Cappello Jacqueline Marie Musacchio	11
2 Vincenzo Gonzaga and the Body Politic: Impotence and Virility at Court Molly Bourne	35
3 Historical and Literary Contexts for the Skimmington: Impotence and Samuel Butler's Hudibras M. A. Katritzky	59
PART II: IMPOTENCE, MAGIC AND MEDICINE
4 Impotence, Witchcraft and Politics: A Renaissance Case Matteo Duni	85
5 The Satyr in the Kitchen Pantry Laura Giannetti	103
6 Impotence and Corruption: Sexual Function and Dysfunction in Early Modern Italian Books of Secrets Meredith K. Ray	125

PART III: HORNS AND VISUAL INNUENDO

7	“Divine cuckolds”: Joseph and Vulcan in Renaissance Art and Literature Francesca Alberti	149
8	Niklaus Manuel and Urs Graf: Cuckolds, Impotence and Sex Workers in Swiss Renaissance Art (c. 1510–1517) Christiane Andersson	183
9	The Cuckoldries of Baccio del Bianco Louise Rice	215
10	Picart’s Browbeaten Husbands in 17th-Century France: Cuckoldry in Context Sara F. Matthews-Grieco	249
	Index	291