

Contents

Acknowledgments	xiii
List of Contributors	xv
List of Abbreviations	xvii

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Still at War: Law and the Erosion of Restraint	3
Brianna Rosen
Introduction	3
Understanding Perpetual War	5
Internalizing and Exporting the War Paradigm	8
The Legal Expansion of War	10
Reimagining War's End	13

II. UNDERSTANDING PERPETUAL WAR

2. How Law, History, and Culture Enabled Perpetual War	19
Mary L. Dudziak
Introduction	19
"Wartime" and the Culture of War	21
How the U.S. Polity Lost Touch with War	23
The Erosion of Restraint	25
Conclusion: Restraining Endless War	29
3. Endless War as Aimless War	31
Cheyney Ryan
Introduction	31
"Neverendians"	32
"Bad Planning"	35
The State as a "Patterned Mess"	39
The Big Muddy	42
4. Rethinking the War Paradigm	44
Andrew Clapham
Introduction	44
Killing in War	45
Unlawful Detention	52
Leaving the War Path	57

III. U.S. PERSPECTIVES ON THE WAR ON TERROR

5. The "Ghost Budget": How America Pays for Endless Wars	63
Linda J. Bilmes
Introduction	63
America's Post-9/11 Wars in Afghanistan and Iraq	64
How Did America Pay for Previous Wars?	66
Paying for the Post-9/11 Wars	69
Why Did the Ghost Budget Emerge?	75
Implications for Perpetual War	78
6. Domestic Repercussions of the U.S. War on Terror	83
Faiza Patel
Introduction	83
The Domestic Front of the War on Terror	85
The War on Immigrants	92
Conclusion	98
7. Assessing the Legacy of U.S. Torture in an Era of Geostrategic Competition	99
Federica D'Alessandra and Alberto J. Mora
Introduction	99
The Costs and Consequences of Torture	101
"Reciprocity" Concerns and Accountability for Russia's Crimes in Ukraine	104
Real or Perceived Risk: U.S. Exposure Before the International Criminal Court	106
A Ripe Opportunity, if Seized	109
The Geopolitics of Accountability	111
Conclusion	112

IV. GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE WAR ON TERROR

8. The War on Terror and the Jus Ad Bellum	117
Sir Michael Wood KCMG, KC
Introduction	117
The Jus Ad Bellum	119
International Law and the Use of Force Against Terrorist Groups	124
When and How Should Wars End?	125
Conclusion	126

9. Europe's Role in Perpetual War: From Counterpoint to Convergence	128
Anthony Dworkin
Introduction	128
Europe's Critical Distance from the Early War on Terror	130
The Turn in European Policy	133
The Lessons of Europe's Counterterror Wars	139
10. How the War on Terror Entrenched Corruption: The Corrosive Legacy of U.S. Intervention in Afghanistan	144
Timor Sharan
Introduction	144
Weaponizing the Financial System	145
Consolidating a Criminal State and a Kleptocracy	148
The Hollowing Out of the Afghan State	151
Conclusion	153
11. "Nobody Wanted to Hear Us": Systemic Civilian Harm in Yemen	154
Priyanka Motaparthi and Radhya al-Mutawakel
Introduction	154
U.S. Lethal Operations and Military Support in Yemen	156
Costs and Consequences of Civilian Harm	157
U.S. Policy Responses and Shortcomings	160
Conclusion	164

V. LEGAL AND POLICY DIMENSIONS

12. Filling the Void: Law, Policy, and Morality at War	167
Adil Ahmad Haque
Introduction	167
Legal Ambiguity and Perpetual War	168
Law and Morality	170
How Policy Can Promote Law's Moral Function	173
13. The Vanishing "Tipping Point" and the Problem of Perpetual War	177
Tess Bridgeman
Introduction	177
International Law on the Temporal Scope of Non-International Armed Conflict	179
Drivers of Perpetual Conflict: Detention, Associated, and Successor Forces	186

The Conflict-Perpetuating Effect of Aggregating Hostilities of “Associated” and “Successor” Forces	191
The U.S. Position in Habeas: Unbounded Aggregation and the End of the Tipping Point	195
Disciplining Our Definitions: Aggregation and NIAC Termination	199
14. Legalistic Policy and Limits to the Global War Paradigm for Counterterrorism	201
Laura A. Dickinson
Introduction	201
The “Legalistic Policy” Approach	203
Embracing the War Paradigm	207
Weighing the Risks	210
15. The Rise of “Self-Defense”—And the Fall of Constraints on the Use of Force	216
Oona A. Hathaway
Introduction	216
The Erosion of Constitutional Constraints on Presidential War Powers	218
The Expansion of “Self-Defense”	224
A Way Forward	240
Conclusion	245
VI. ENDING PERPETUAL WAR
16. Alternative Approaches to Counterterrorism	251
Fionnuala Ní Aoláin KC (Hon)
The Shifting Counterterrorism Landscape	251
Identifying the Pathways and Costs of Prevailing Counterterrorism Frameworks	254
Governance Costs of Entrenched Counterterrorism Regimes	255
The Cost to Civil Society of Normalized and Perpetual Counterterrorism	257
The Nexus of Armed Conflict to Counterterrorism: Why Critical Reframing Is Necessary	258
Alternative Approaches to Counterterrorism	260
Conclusion	268
17. Beyond Redress: Rethinking Transitional Justice	270
Pablo de Greiff
Introduction	270
Definitional Challenges	273
Understanding the Drivers of Terrorism	278
Moving from Redress to Prevention	281

18. Risk and Ending War	283
Elad Uzan
Introduction	283
Normative Considerations in War Termination	284
War Termination and the Goals of War	285
Risk and Normativity	287
Risk in the Termination of Counterterrorism Wars	289
Conclusion: Ending Wars on Terror	295
19. Forever War and the Jus Ex Bello	297
Tom Dannenbaum
Introduction	297
Foreverness and the Law	299
Jus Ex Bello in International Law	303
Objections	311
Conclusion	318
20. How to Finally End America's Forever War	319
Harold Hongju Koh
Introduction	319
Diagnosis	320
Prescription	324
Conclusion	349
Index	351