

Contents

	Acknowledgments	8
	Preface	9
1	Music, Magic, and Childhood	15
	The effect of lessons. Toddlers, Martians, and Einstein. Musicality, creativity, and cognition. A precious resource.
2	Vitality	29
	Judgments and competition. Which skills? Lessons and traditions. Vitality in the practice room.
3	Juicy Mistakes	51
	Honest mistakes. Careless mistakes. Mistakes as teachers. Suppression and denial. Chaos. Mindfulness.
4	Step by Step: A Guide to Healthy Practicing	77
	What is healthy practicing? Bring the mind-body system to a practice-ready state. Address the music at hand. Take a break. To sum up. FAQ: frequently asked questions about practicing.
5	Breakthroughs	99
	Spatial relationships. Hidden truths. Alike but different. Physiology. Negative space. Artistry.
6	Is It Good to Be a Good Student?	117
	The good student syndrome. The good student in the music studio. Perfectionism. Sight-reading and its dangers.
7	Out of Control: The Drama of Performing	137
	The ego in crisis. Nerves. Expansiveness.

8	Lessons and Un-Lessons	153
	Turn the project upside down. Remove the goal. Try the (seemingly) impossible. Brainstorm the possibilities. Be a student yourself. What is a lesson anyway?
9	The Un-Master Class: Rethinking a Tradition	173
	The master class. The Artist Within: a workshop and its legacy. The Un-Master Class.
10	Adventurous Amateurs	201
	Advantages of maturity. Grown-up practicing. Other musical pleasures.
11	Beyond the Music Room	213
	Alchemy. A new kind of information.
	Postscript: A Word to Health Professionals	223
	Resources	228
	Notes	230
	Bibliography	233
	Index	236
	About the Author	239