

CONTENTS

Foreword to the English Edition	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
Abbreviations	xvi
A Letter to the Author from Karl Barth	xvii
Introduction	1

PART ONE: KARL BARTH'S THEOLOGY OF JUSTIFICATION

A. JUSTIFICATION AND SALVATION-HISTORY

1. An Alien Language	7
Is Barth incomprehensible?—Problem of the thought form—Holy Scripture
2. Justification: What is the Central Problem?	9
Luther—Justification as fundamental problem—Justification as particular problem
3. Justification in the Total Context of Barth's Theology	12
Prolegomena—God in Jesus Christ—His work
4. The Eternal Foundation of Justification	16
Election in Jesus Christ—God's grace and the independence of the creature—The living God
5. The Covenant—Prerequisite for Justification	20
Covenant and creation—Creation as grace—Creation as justification
6. Justification in Reconciliation—The Fulfilment of the Broken Covenant	25
Covenant-faithfulness versus covenant-breaking—Justification in reconciliation
7. Prospect and Retrospect	29

B. THE ACHIEVEMENT OF JUSTIFICATION

8. Jesus Christ—Our Justification	36
God who became man—The Judge who was judged—God's judgment

9. The Rejection of the Sinner	42
The double sense of the judgment—Sin in the light of the Crucified One—Sin is pride
10. Fallen Man	46
The sinner remains man—And the freedom of man?—The radicality, totality, universality of sin
11. God's Justice against the Injustice of Man	53
God is just—And he executes justice—The transition from death to life
12. An Alien Justice—Our own Justice	58
The self-enlistment of God—Our very own history
13. The Just Man	62
The dual orientation—The beginning of justification—The consummation of justification—Forgiveness of sins, filial relationship to God, the heavenly inheritance
14. Justification and Sanctification	67
The interior justifying—Unity in diversity—The order of things
15. Through Faith Alone	70
God's otherness in the event of justification—The disqualification of works—Justified by faith
16. Love and Works	76
Faith active through love—Love as consequence of faith—The praise of works
17. The Foundation of Christian Existence	79
The presence of the Holy Spirit—The Church—The constituting of the new being
18. The Justification of Man as the Self-justification of God	86
The justice of the Creator and Covenant-Lord—The right of the Son—The right of the Father
19. Open Questions	89

PART TWO: AN ATTEMPT AT A CATHOLIC RESPONSE

A. FUNDAMENTALS

20. The Theology of Justification Past and Present	95
Dialogue instead of dialectic—Dogma in development—The polemic aspect of definitions—Anthropocentricity of Trent—The theology of the textbooks—Holy Scripture the principal source of Catholic theology—The meaning of tradition—Our method—Barthian freedom of inquiry?

Contents	vii
21. The Redeemer Jesus Christ	118
Christocentricity—The pre-existence of the Redeemer—The prehistory of the Church
22. Creation as a Salvation Event	129
Creation in Christ according to Scripture—In the Catholic tradition—Nothing apart from Christ—Stages—Why creation in Jesus Christ?
23. Sin and Death in the Plan of Salvation	141
The sinner has forfeited life—Why does he continue to exist?—Forbearance and grace—Creation in Christ—Death as salvation or calamity—Thomism and Scotism—Athanasius
24. The Wretchedness of Sin	163
Sin is always against Christ and His body—The power and impotence of sin—The incapacity of every form of self-justification
25. The Ruin of Man	172
The forfeiture of freedom—Sinner at heart—The acts of the sinner
26. Different Foundations	181
B. THE REALITY OF JUSTIFICATION
27. Grace as Graciousness	187
Polemics—Exegetical analysis—The personal and the theocentric aspects—Unity in Christ and His body—The pardon of man—Misunderstandings
28. The Declaration of the Sinner's Justice	199
Justification is the declaration of justice—The making just—Justification in the history of dogma
29. Justification in Christ's Death and Resurrection	212
The judgment of God—"Justification" and "redemption"—The accent on the "objective"—The critique of Trent?
30. Simul Iustus et Peccator	225
The Catholic simul —In Trent and in Holy Scripture—The past, covetousness, world and Church
31. Sola Fide	237
In the Catholic tradition—Works excluded—Faith as trust in Jesus Christ— Fides viva —Baptism and the Church—Essential change
32. Soli Deo Gloria	251
The co-operation of man—Justification and sanctification—Merit

33. Divided in Faith?	262
Excursus I: The Redeemer in God's Eternity	272
Excursus II: Justification and Sanctification according to the New Testament	289
Excursus III: Karl Barth's Doctrine of the Word of God as a Question to Catholic Theology	313
Creation and Incarnation— Assumptio humanitatis temporalis in Deum aeternum —Jesus Christ in the bosom of the Father— Scripture—The Fathers—The work of Jesus Christ in the Old Testament—Mary— Mysterium
Bibliography	337
Index	356