

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
List of contributors	x
Series editor introduction	xiv
 Introduction	 1
DAMIAN McCANN
 1 Sexuality and gender in development: Facets of bedrock and beyond	 8
PAUL E. LYNCH
 2 Revitalizing the Oedipal model for LGBTQ couples and families	 24
SHELLEY NATHANS
 3 Family matters: The impact of family and sociocultural context on LGBTQ identities and psychodynamics	 43
ANDI PILECKI ELIZA-CHRISTIE
 4 Cultural and intercultural considerations in working with same-sex couples	 60
PATRICIA PORCHAT
 5 Exploring unconscious anxieties for couple psychoanalytic psychotherapists working with same-sex couples: The same or different?	 74
KATE THOMPSON

6 Bisexual people and their partners in relational psychoanalytic couple therapy: Aesthetic conflict, multiple selves and the uncontainable	89
ESTHER RAPOPORT AND IRIT KLEINER PAZ
7 Queer relationships: unmapped intimacies	105
IGGY ROBINSON AND ALICE KENTRIDGE
8 The fear of difference and desire to differentiate: Working with two transitioning couples	122
LINSEY BLAIR AND DOROTA MUCHA
9 They ‘went in two by two’: The challenge for couple psychotherapists of working with those in open and polyamorous relationships	135
DAMIAN McCANN
10 Psychosexual considerations in working LGBTQ+ couples and individuals	151
MARIAN O’CONNOR
11 The process of ageing for same-sex couples	166
DAVID RICHARDS
12 Responding to the challenge that same-sex parents pose for psychoanalytic couple and family psychotherapists: Confronting implicit bias!	179
DAMIAN McCANN AND COLLEEN SANDOR
13 The LGBTQ couple choice of therapist he/she/they, straight or gay: Creativity vs defense	192
COLLEEN SANDOR
14 Understanding and responding to intimate partner violence and abuse in same-sex couple relationships	205
DAMIAN McCANN
Index	220