

CONTENTS

'Everyone will live in his own cathedral': the Situationists 1958-1964.....	1
The Sound and The Fury	8
The Struggle for Control of the New Techniques of Conditioning.....	11
The Construction of Situations: An Introduction	13
Formula For a New City	17
Traffic	22
Instructions for Taking Up Arms	24
Unitary Urbanism	28
The Transformation of Everyday Life	33
The Bad Old Days Will End	41
The Totality For Kids	46
Theses on the Commune	72
All the King's Men	76
Isolation	82
'Shake in your shoes bureaucrats': the Situationists 1965-1969	84
Watts 1965: The Decline and Fall of the 'Spectacular' Commodity Economy	93
The Decor and the Spectators of Suicide	101
The Situationists and the New Forms of Struggle Against Politics and Art	103
Minimum Definition of a Revolutionary Organisation	106
The Proletariat as Subject and as Representation	110
Nihilism	127
Self-Realisation, Communication and Participation	131
Address to All Workers	153
Some Thoughts on General Self-Management	155
'Those who make half a revolution only dig their own graves': the Situationists since 1969	164