

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction: Mapping the Legal Mind of Europe	XXIII
I. Legal Methodology in Practice and in the Study of Law in Austria	1
Daniel Staudigl – Kamila Staudigl-Ciechowicz
II. Methodology of Law and Methodology of Legal Scholarship in Belgium	17
Frederik Peeraer
III. Methodology of Public Law, Law, and Legal Scholarship in Croatia	45
Ivan Padjen
IV. Which Methodology for Law? Reflections from the Case of Legal Education in Cyprus	85
Stergios G. Mitas
V. Methodology of Law and Methodology of Legal Scholarship in the Czech Republic	101
Katarzyna Źak KrzyŹankova – Pavel Maršalek – Jan Tryzna
VI. Methodology of Law and Methodology of Legal Scholarship in the Law School Curricula – Germany	143
Andreas Funke
VII. The Icelandic Legal Method and Scholarship	163
Hafsteinn Dan Kristjansson
VIII. Italy: Rethinking Legal Education. New Challenges, Classical Method	189
Elena Bettarello
IX. Methodology of Law and Methodology of Legal Scholarship in the Law School Curricula – Latvia	217
Jānis Pleps – Dita Plepa – Kalvis Engīzers
X. Legal Methodology the Polish Way: between Legal Theory, Legal Dogmatics and Legal Practice	241
Maciej Próchnicki – Maciej Juzaszek – Wojciech Ciszewski – Przemysław Pałka

XI. Teaching Legal Methodology in Romania 271
Alexandra Mercescu

XII. Methodology of Law and Legal Scholarship in the Law School
Curricula: Russian Practice 293
Marina Davydova

XIII. The Methodology of Law and the Methodology of Legal Scholarship in Slovakia.311
Tomáš Gábriš

XIV. On Legal Methodology in Spain. 339
Adolfo Jorge Sanchez Hidalgo

Conclusions 365

Literature 369