1 INTRODUCTION 1

2 ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN AGRICULTURAL VALUE CHAINS 8

2.1 Concept of entrepreneurship in agricultural value chains 8

2.1.1 Value chain analysis in agricultural systems 10

2.1.2 Role of youth in agricultural value chains 12

2.1.3 Barriers to youth entrepreneurship in agricultural value chains 14

2.3 Value addition and industrial upgrading in agriculture 20

2.4 Theoretical framework: the Resource–Resilience–Viability (RRV) model 24

3 AIM OF THE THESIS 27

3.1 Objectives of the study 27

3.2 Abstract of the sub-chapters 29

4 METHODOLOGY 36

4.1 Overview of the research design 36

4.2 Study areas 37

4.3 Data sources 42

4.4 Sampling strategy and data collection 42

4.4.1 Sampling for sub-chapter one 43

4.4.2 Sampling for sub-chapter two 46

4.4.3 Data collection for sub-chapter three 46

5 THREE EMPIRICAL CASE STUDIES OF YOUTH ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN GHANA'S AGRICULTURAL VALUE CHAINS 47

5.1 Human, social, and financial capital as drivers of youth enterprise performance: evidence from food processing entrepreneurs in ghana 49
5.1.1Introduction 49
5.1.2Theoretical background 54
5.1.3 Data analysis 58
5.1.4 Results 67
5.1.5 Discussion 75
5.2 Credit Support and Post-Disaster Recovery: Evidence from Youth-Led Informal Food Enterprises in Ghana 81
5.2.1 Introduction 81
5.2.2 Conceptual framework 86
5.2.3 Empirical estimation approach 91
5.2.4 Results 100
5.3 Boosting the industrial capacity of Ghana in artisanal chocolate processing; a financial feasibility study 114
5.3.2 Results 123
5.3.3 Financial analysis 128
5.3.4 Sensitivity and scenario analysis 131
5.5 Limitations of the study 136
5.6 Summary of policy implications 137
6 CONCLUSION 141
