

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Figures	ix
Note on Abbreviations and References	xi
References to Komsomol'skaia pravda Editorial Meetings and Articles	xiii

Introduction: Reformers and Propagandists: The Paradoxes of Post-war Soviet Journalism	1
--	---

SECTION 1. 1945-1957: RITUAL SOCIALISM

1. Rituals, Routines and Ideology in the Late Stalinist Press	21
2. Satire, Sensations, and Slander: Criticism and Self-Criticism from Stalin to the Secret Speech	54

SECTION 2. 1956-1964: ROMANTIC SOCIALISM

3. Far from Moscow: Heroic Autobiographies and the Paradoxes of Thaw Modernity	93
4. From Word to Deed: The Communard Method and Thaw Citizenship	123

SECTION 3. 1960-1970: REFORMING SOCIALISM

5. The Institute of Public Opinion and the Birth of Soviet Polling	157
6. From Technocracy to Stagnation: When Did the Thaw Freeze Over?	187
Epilogue: Thaw Journalism after the Thaw	217

Bibliography	227
Index	245