

Contents

List of Tables VII

Introduction 1

- 1 Direct Management of the ‘Portuguese’ Asientos 21
 - 1 The Lead up to the ‘Portuguese’ Asientos 24
 - 2 Asientos de Negros: The Standard Contractual Provisions 32
 - 3 The Organisation and Implementation of the Asientos 39
 - 4 Costs and Benefits of the Asientos 42
 - 5 Conclusion 47
- 2 Indirect Management of the Asiento 50
 - 1 Changing the Rules of the Game: The 1662 Asiento 54
 - 2 Re-orchestrating the Trade 59
 - 2.1 Organising the Asiento from Europe 59
 - 2.2 The Trade from Africa 61
 - 2.3 The American Networks and the Colonial Markets 62
 - 3 Conclusion 69
- 3 Outsourcing: A Chartered Privileged Approach to the Asiento 71
 - 1 A Smoking Screen: Sir Martin Noell and the Negotiations with the Asiento 73
 - 2 Martin Noell and Alexander Bence in Amsterdam 77
 - 3 The Terms of the First Contract and the Deployment of the Asiento 79
 - 4 Contracting the Company of Royal Adventurers into Africa 81
 - 5 Competing for Enslaved Labour: A View from the English Caribbean 83
 - 6 Conclusion 87
- 4 Outsourcing: A Joint-Stock Approach to the Asiento 90
 - 1 The WIC: A Joint Stock Company 91
 - 2 The WIC: The Provisions of the Asiento and Curaçao 94
 - 3 Outsourcing the Slave Trade to a Joint-Stock Company 95
 - 4 The WIC and the Asiento 97
 - 5 Amsterdam Merchant Networks and the Asiento 100
 - 6 Routes and Procedures 102

7	Illicit Trade and the Asiento	104
8	Conclusion	106
5	Deaths and Debts: The Zenith of Indirect Management?	108
1	Old Solutions to New Problems	109
2	New Names to Old Solutions	112
3	The Shortcoming of Indirect Management	115
4	The Definite Failure of Indirect Management	119
6	Credible Asentista : Moving Away from Intermediaries	124
1	Aligning Interests before the Asiento of 1696	126
2	Partners and Capital	131
3	The Asiento under the Companhia da Guiné	137
4	The Dissolution of the Portuguese Asiento	145
7	Royal Shareholders: The End of an Era	148
1	The Negotiation Process and the Content of the Contract	148
2	The Late Establishment of the Compagnie de L'asiento	151
3	Licensing and Contracting	155
4	Costs and Gains of the Asiento	159
8	Conclusion	166
	Bibliography	175
	Index	195