

CONTENTS

1	The STEP Project	1
	Flaminia Saccà
2	Culture, Stereotypes, and Social Behaviour	5
	Flaminia Saccà
3	The Condition of Women as a Consequence of the Historic, Economic, and Social Context	13
	Flaminia Saccà
4	Three Times a Victim. An Overview of the Judicial and Journalistic Representation of Gender-Based Violence	25
	Flaminia Saccà
1	The Data on Violence	27
2	The Social Representation of Gender-Based Violence: Normalization, Mitigation of Male Responsibility, and Concealment of the Guilt	30

5	The Research Method	41
	Michele Negri
1	The Theoretical and Conceptual Framework: Between Research/Action and Outlooks for Cultural Change	43
2	Reconnaissance and Bibliographic Analysis of Context Based on the Secondary Data	47
3	Analysis of Court Decisions: The Initial Phase of Building Case Law	51
4	Two Databases for Three Research Actions: Technical/Methodological Aspects and Reconfiguration of the Research Design	54
5	The Database and Analysis of the Court Decisions	57
6	Media Analysis: Violence Against Women in the Pages of Newspapers	61
7	Conclusions	63
6	The Words to Say It. Recounting Violence in the Judge's Language	67
	Fabrizia Giuliani
1	Common Sense: Language and Culture	67
2	Presentation of the corpus	71
	2.1 Description of the Injured Person	73
3	The Perpetrator: Reason and Sentiment	77
4	Sexuality in the Male Stereotype	79
5	Representation of the Act: Violence as Reaction	81
6	Violence Against Women as a Public Issue	84
7	Gendered Court Decisions? The Juridical Representation of Violence Against Women	87
	Luca Massidda
1	Introduction and Methodology	87
2	The Victim's Testimony: Juridical Status and Social Representation	88
	2.1 The Adjectives for the Victim's Testimony	92

2.2	Credibility Markers: Emotion and Fragility, Forgiveness and Modesty	94
2.3	Juridical Exemplarity and Stereotyped Representation	99
3	Bias in the Social Representation of Gender-Based Violence: Quarrelsomeness, Jealousy, Raptus	101
3.1	The Family Quarrels Frame	101
3.2	The Juridical Consequences of a Linguistic Bias	107
3.3	The Jealousy Frame	109
3.4	The Raptus Frame	112
4	Conclusions: CEDAW and the Istanbul Convention, these Great Unknowns	117
8	Male Violence Against Women in Journalistic Discourse	121
	Rosalba Belmonte
1	The STEP Project and Press Research	121
2	Men and Women in the Journalistic Account of Violence: An Imbalanced Narrative	124
3	Shifting Responsibility Away from the Perpetrator	126
4	Negation of Female Subjectivity in the Journalistic Narrative of Violence	130
5	The Banality of Evil: The Normalization of Male Violence Against Women	131
6	Two Ways of Narrating Violence	135
6.1	A Private Issue	136
6.2	A Sociocultural Problem	137
7	Final Considerations: it doesn't "just happen"!	138
9	International Legal Sources	141
	Maria Teresa Manente and Ilaria Boiano
1	The System of Sources and Definition Profiles	141
2	The Supranational Sources and the Definitions of Violence Against Women	143
3	International Obligations	150
3.1	The Istanbul Convention	151
4	Impact on Sexist Stereotypes and Prejudices Relating to Women's Access to Justice	155
5	Access to Justice by Women Victims and Survivors of Violence in Italy	157

Appendix 1. Regulations	163
Appendix 2. Good and Bad Practices	177
Bibliography	217
Index	245