
Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	viii
List of Editor and Contributors	ix
Introduction: Understanding nationalism through the lens of education	1
DANIEL TRÖHLER
1 Education and the nation: Educational knowledge in the dominant theories of nationalism	7
DANIEL TRÖHLER AND VERONIKA MARICIC
2 “The divine fire . . . burns within them.” National Davids and Goliaths in Swiss, Danish, and Scottish school lessons	34
NICOLE GOTLING, VERONIKA MARICIC, AND LUKAS BOSER HOFMANN
3 Nation-building by education statistics and data: A comparative perspective on school surveys in Switzerland, France, and Scotland	55
REBEKKA HORLACHER, SÉBASTIEN A. ALIX, AND LUKAS BOSER HOFMANN
4 Education and nationalism after empire: Imposing and inventing the nation as the fundament of the modern state in interwar Austria and “Slovene Yugoslavia”	77
FLORIAN GIMPL AND JERNEJ KOSI

5	Sharing nationalism through public education in Latin America: An overview of early-twentieth-century Argentina and Mexico	101
	HOWARD PROSSER, JASON BEECH, AND ALONSO CASANUEVA BAPTISTA
6	Korean ethnic nationalism and modern education: Christianity and political ideologies in shaping one nation and two states	124
	TERRI KIM
7	Nation-building and curriculum in Canada	149
	JENNIFER WALLNER AND STÉPHANIE CHOUINARD
8	Primers as a nation's self-portrait: The case of Latvia and Lithuania in the 1920s and 1930s	173
	IVETA KESTERE AND IRENA STONKUVIENE
9	Literacies of childhood and nation in the Anthropocene: Insights from (post) Soviet early literacy textbooks	194
	DILRABA ANAYATOVA, KETEVAN CHACHKHIANI, SETRAG HOVSEPIAN, IVETA SILOVA, AND KETI TSOTNIASHVILI
10	Reform histories and changing educational conceptions of the nation and nationalism in Norwegian and Swedish curricula (1900–2020)	224
	KIRSTEN SIVESIND AND MAGNUS HULTÉN
11	Concluding chapter: Education, nationalism, and internationalism: gap-filling and gap-creating	249
	MICHAEL BILLIG
	Index	264