

CONTENTS

PREFACE ix

INTRODUCTION xxiii

Art as the Search for Meaning xxiii

Art for Life as Social Reconstructionism xxiii

Who Our Readers Are xxiv

The Structure of This Text xxiv

PART I THE FOUNDATIONS OF ART FOR LIFE 1

CHAPTER I Art for Life: Conceptual and Cultural Foundations: The Purpose of Art for Life 2

The Cultural Content of Art for Life 4

Traditional Art and Understandings 4

Modern Art and Understandings 4

Contemporary Postmodern Art and Understandings 5

Art for Life: Content from Three Worldviews 6

Art for Life's Aim, Goals, and Educational Premises 7

The Curricular Structure of Art for Life 7

A Word about Creativity, Visual Culture, and New Technology
as Foci for Art for Life 8

Comprehensive Art Education for Life 8

Instructional Strategies in Art for Life 9

Dialogue and Cooperative Exploration 12

Critical Analysis of Art and Visual Culture 12

Historical and Other Contextual Research	12
Visual Research and Skills in Making Art	13
Creative Expression	13
Critical Reflection on Personal and Social Meanings and Values Understood through the Study of Art	14
Instructional Objectives, Outcomes, and Assessment	14
Real-World Issues	15
National Standards, Assessments, and Art for Life	15
A Closer Look: The INTASC Standards	16
Beyond the Art Room: Aesthetic Practice, Ethical Understanding and Behavior, and Social Reconstructionism	17
Conclusion	18
Questions for Study and Discussion	19
Further Reading	20
CHAPTER 2	Authentic Instruction: The Theoretical Foundation for Art for Life
	22
Educational Theory: Why Should We Care?	23
Authentic Instruction: The Model for Art for Life	24
What Authentic Instruction Is	24
Goals and Characteristics of Authentic Instruction	25
Building Authentic Teaching and Learning in Art	25
Real-World Connections and the Construction of Community	25
A Closer Look: A Lesson with Real-World Connections	26
Construction of Knowledge	28
A Closer Look: Constructivism	30
Acquiring of Depth of Knowledge	31
A Closer Look: Thematic Instruction	32
Assessment of Authentic Instruction	35
Examples of Authentic Learning in Art as Real-World Practice	36
Conclusion	38
Questions for Study and Discussion	38
Further Reading	39

PART 2 TEACHING AND LEARNING STRATEGIES FOR ART FOR LIFE 41

CHAPTER 3 Art Education and Visual Culture 42

Introduction to Visual Culture 43

Visual Culture Education 44

Some Roots of Visual Culture in Art Education:
A Historical Perspective 45

Psychological Roots: How and What We See 45

Anthropological Roots 50

Contextualist Roots 51

Contemporary Trends: VCAE 51

Core Concerns 51

A Closer Look: The Ethnographic Gaze—An Example of Performance Art as Critique 54

A Closer Look: A Pedagogical Framework for VCAE 55

The Content of VCAE 55

Example: Addressing Environmental Advertising 59

Content Base: Purposes and Aesthetics of Environmental Advertising 59

Advertising and the Environment 61

Asking Questions about Environmental Ads 62

Conclusion 62

Questions for Study and Discussion 63

Further Reading 63

CHAPTER 4 Individual Expression and Creativity 64

Individual and Social Creativity 65

Individual Expression and Creativity in Art 65

The Social Nature of Creativity 66

Creative Traits and Art Instruction: A Social Perspective 67

Personal Traits of Creative Individuals 67

Is Creativity Worth It? 67

Csikszentmihalyi's Ten Paradoxical Qualities 68

Creativity as Cognition: The Crucial Role of Metaphor 70

- Metaphor as the Core of Creativity 70
- Cultural Metaphor 71
- Metaphor as Creative Activity in Students' Art 71
- A Closer Look: "Synectics" 72
- Metaphor and Creative Interpretation 72
- A Closer Look: Metamorphic Problem Solving (MPS) 73

Developing a Creative Environment at School 74

- Overcoming Blocks to Creativity 74
- Cooperative Problem Solving and Individual Research 75

Conclusion 77Questions for Study and Discussion 77*Further Reading 78*CHAPTER 5 Aesthetics 80*What Is Aesthetics? 81*What Are the Primary Concerns of Aesthetics? 81

- Beauty 81
- Aesthetic Response 82
- Defining and Valuing Art: Theories 82
- Talking about Art 84

What Do Aestheticians Do? 85

- Using Aesthetics in the Curriculum: Deciding on Your Own Values 85
- Formalism 85
- Contextualism 86
- Useful Eclecticism 87

Aesthetics as Critical Inquiry: A Course of Study 88

- Is It Art? The Case of Sherrie Levine 88
- A Closer Look: Is Sherrie Levine an Artist? 89
- Meaning and Value in Art 90
- A Closer Look: A Student-Generated Position: What Is Art? 91
- Aesthetic and Artistic Experience 92

Additional Activities 94Conclusion 95

Questions for Study and Discussion	95
Further Reading	96
CHAPTER 6	Art Criticism 98
What Is Art Criticism and Why Do We Do It?	99
Looking at the Work: The Question of Style	99
Looking beyond the Work: Determining Meaning in Context	99
Some Premises of Art Criticism	100
Educational Art Criticism	100
Models for Instruction	102
An Analytic Model	102
A Feminist Conversational Model	106
A Closer Look: Elizabeth Garber's Principles of Feminist Art Criticism	110
A Principled Approach to Art Criticism	111
Activity: Art Criticism	111
Three Models of Art Criticism: Which to Use?	112
Additional Activities: Art Criticism Strategies	112
Conclusion	115
Questions for Study and Discussion	115
Further Reading	115
CHAPTER 7	Art History 116
The Social Construction of Art History	117
A Closer Look: Appropriation and the Law	119
The Practice of Art History	120
What Do Art Historians Do?	120
What Are Art Historians' Tools?	120
Art History in Education	122
The Practice of Art History and Art for Life	122
Art History and Students' Constructed Meanings	122
A Closer Look: The Interview as Research	123
Art Historical Research as Authentic Education	124
The Bayeux Tapestry: An Example of Authentic Art History	125

Developing Social Consciousness through Art History	128
Controversial Topics	129
Difficult Topics and Strategies for Authentic Discussion	130
Activities for Authentic Art History	131
Conclusion	136
Questions for Study and Discussion	136
Further Reading	137
 CHAPTER 8
Making Art	138
Making Art for Meaning	139
What Kinds of Meanings Do Artists Make?	139
The Essential Language of Art	139
The Contextual Uses of Art	140
Bridging the Gap between Essentialism and Contextualism	140
Developing a Curriculum for Making Art	141
Making Art as a Symbolic Communication in a Medium	141
Making Art as Qualitative Thinking	142
Inspiration, Craft, and the Creative Process	142
The Social Aspect of Making Art as Communication	142
Personal Pleasure and the Survival Function of Art	143
Art as Personal Development	143
Students Making Their Own Meanings	144
The Process of Making Art	145
Trusting Your Knowing Hands	147
A Closer Look: Making the Time and Space for Knowing in Art	148
Qualitative Instruction in Making Art	148
Facilitating Skills	148
Facilitating the Connection between Process and Meaning	149
Dealing with Students' Fear of Making Art	149
The Relationship between Skills and Expression	150
Facilitating the Growth of Artistic Intelligence	150
Developing Talent versus Art as a Way of Knowing	151

Conclusion	152
Questions for Study and Discussion	153
Further Reading	153
CHAPTER 9	New Technologies and Art Education
	154
Technology and Culture	155
Technologies, Old and New	155
Computer Technology: Advocates and Critics	155
New Technologies: Artists, Issues, and Ideas	156
High Tech: The Early Days	157
Issues of Authorship, Truth, and Power	157
Bill Viola	158
A Closer Look: Recent Installations by Bill Viola	159
Digital Interactivity	160
New Technologies: Issues, Content, and Strategies for Art Education	160
Practically Speaking: Technology in the Classroom	161
Some Functions of Computer Technology in Art Education	161
A Closer Look: Online Research as Constructivist Learning	163
Social Content and New Technologies	164
Studying Bill Viola: An Example of Technologically Based Teaching and Learning	165
Key Concepts	165
Procedure	165
Conclusion	167
Questions for Study and Discussion	167
Further Reading	168

PART 3
MODELS FOR INSTRUCTIONINTRODUCTION TO PART THREE 169

Thematic Inquiry	169
Central Themes in Art for Life	170
A Sense of Self	170

A Sense of Place 170

A Sense of Community 170

Themes Steer, but Art Drives 171

The Instructional Units That Follow 171

CHAPTER 10 What Drives You? Research Notebooks and a Sense of Self 172

Overview 173

Key Concepts 173

Content Base 173

Objective 176

Special Logistics 176

Resources 176

Procedure 176

Evaluation 177

Further Reading 179

CHAPTER 11 A Sense of Community: Krzysztof Wodiczko and the Social Responsibility of Art 180

Overview 181

Key Concepts 181

Content Base: Krzysztof Wodiczko and the Social Responsibility of Art 181

Objectives 183

Resources 183

Procedure 183

Discussion and Reflection on Social Issues and Art 183

Research Notebook 184

Making Art 185

Evaluation 186

Further Reading 187

CHAPTER 12 A Sense of Place and of Community: Sea Full of Clouds—Ciel Bergman, Nancy Merrill, and Ecological Consciousness 188

Overview	189
Key Concepts	189
Content Base	189
Objectives	193
Resources	193
Procedure	193
Research and Reflection on Environmental Issues and Art	193
Research Notebook	194
Making Art	194
Community Interaction	195
Evaluation	195
Further Reading	196

CHAPTER 13 A Sense of Self, of Place, and of Community—Fred Wilson's Installation Art and Reconstruction of the Historical Narrative 198

Overview	199
Key Concept	199
Issues and Assumptions	199
Content Base	200
Objectives	202
Special Logistics	202
Resources	202
Procedure	202
Evaluation	204
Extension or Alternative	204
Further Reading	205

CHAPTER 14 A Sense of Self and of Community— Exploring Issues of Identity through the Artwork of Charnelle Holloway 206

Overview	207
Key Concepts	207
Content Base	207
Objectives	209
Resources	209
Procedure	209
Looking at Art and Visual Artifacts	210
Constructing Identity through Art	211
Questions and Topics for Research and Discussion	212
Making Art	212
Evaluation	213
Further Reading	213

CHAPTER 15 A Sense of Self, of Place, and of Community—Art for Peace 214

Overview	215
Key Concepts	215
Content Base	215
The Guernica Peace Mural Project	216
The Mandala Peace Project	219
Objectives	222
Resources	222
Procedure	222
The Mandala Approach	222
The Community Mural Approach	223
Execution	225
Evaluation	226
Further Reading	226

CHAPTER 16	Art Education for Life	228
Art as a Quest for Meaning	229
The Purpose of Art Education for Life	230
Culture as Content for Art for Life	230
Meaning through Authentic Instruction: The Educational Philosophy of Art for Life	230
The Curriculum and Educational Strategies of Art for Life	231
The Content of Art for Life	231
Community and Social Growth as Goals of Art for Life	232
Conclusion	233
Further Reading	233
Key Terms	234
References	239
Credits	251
Illustration Index	253
General Index	255	