

Contents

Foreword	Joseph L. Graves, Jr. and Nina Jablonski	ix
Acknowledgments		xii
Introduction: Why Racial Literacy?	Sally Battle	1
Part I Background: Why and How Should Libraries Foster Racial Literacy?		23
Introduction: Racism as Malinformation: Racial Literacy as a Solution	Nicole A. Cooke	23
1	Understanding the Challenges and Opportunities of Talking to Children about Race and Racism in Child-Facing Institutions Leigh S. Wilton, Jessica Sullivan, Analia F. Albuja, and Sylvia P. Perry	29
2	Tell Me Sweet Little Lies: Racism as a Form of Persistent Malinformation Nicole A. Cooke	52
3	Unpacking the Racial Literacy Turn Jordan Bell and Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz	64
Part II Essentials: What Does Every Library Professional Need to Know?		77
Introduction: What We All Need to Know: Bridging the Gap between Theory and Practice	Nicole A. Cooke	77
4	The Evolution of Skin Color and the Invention of Color-Based Races Nina Jablonski	83
5	Representation Matters: A Practitioner's Guide to Ethnic-Racial Development in Children Onnie Rogers, Dana Mastro, Michael B. Robb, and Alanna Peebles	91
6	Navigating Your Equity Journey Casey H. Rawson and Sandra Hughes-Hassell	114
7	Your First Stop: Collection Development Betsy Bird	127
8	Belonging in the Library: A Tool for Improved Access through Racial Literacy Jessica Iverson Wu	146

Part III Applications: Fostering Racial Learning and Literacy While Serving Youth	173
Introduction: How Can We Foster Racial Literacy without Causing Harm? Sally Battle	173
9 School Libraries: Serving Every Child's Racial Identity Growth Laura Reiko Simeon	183
10 "Inclusive Classroom Libraries" Workshop for Teachers and School Librarians Nicole Lawton	194
11 Creating Pathways to Racial Literacy: Incorporating Anti-Bias Principles into Youth and Family Library Programs Sally Battle and Sydney Stensland	203
12 Camp Read-a-Rama: Growing Racial Literacy through 100 Percent Engagement Programming Sydney Geyer and Michelle H. Martin	230
13 Race Education-Specific Family Programs in Public Libraries Sally Battle with contributors Esli Avalos, Jessica A. Bratt, Cristina Bueno, Crystal Elliott O'Connor, Kennedy Joseph, Megan Sanks, Jessica Iverson Wu, and Sarah Jo Zaharako	247
14 Library Programs for Racial Affinity Groups Kennedy Joseph	287
Part IV Conclusion	303
15 Conclusion Sally Battle	305
Index	309