

Contents

Editorial: In this issue 383

I•CON Keynotes

Raymond A. Atuguba. Neo-democracy: Legal empowerment and the reincarnation of democracy in Africa 387

Justice (R) Syed Mansoor Ali Shah. When courts fall silent, societies descend into darkness: Judicial resilience, legal empowerment, and the struggle against autocracy 395

Articles

Raffaela Kunz. Between democratization and instrumentalization: A constitutional perspective on open science 412

Anthony Sangiuliano. Causation and exposition 442

Pranav Verma. Forty-five years of public interest litigations in India: Changing constituencies and the rise of the regulatory court 473

Maria Kotsoni. Informal constitutional change and the rise of fiscal discipline in Europe: Ripple effects on fundamental social rights 502

Endre Orbán. Losing academic legitimacy: The Fundamental Law of Hungary and its acceptance among Hungarian public law scholars 537

Tanzil Chowdhury. Toward a historical materialist account of British constitutional change 557

Katalin Kelemen, Maija Dahlberg, Åsa Elmerot, Mikael Kenno Fogde, Haukur Logi Karlsson, Helle Krunke, Morten Nadim, and Nicklas Pettersson. Constitutional reasoning in the Nordic supreme courts: A comparative empirical analysis 589

Alessandro Ferrara. Constitutional identity and constitutional authenticity 626

Ivo Gruev. Constitutionalizing gender: Deterrence instead of equality 651

I•CON: Debate!

- Barak Medina. On constitutional identity, democratic legitimacy, and judicial review in times of democratic backsliding:
The case of Israel 681
- Issi Rosen-Zvi and Meir H. Yarom. Constitutional methodology and the perils of positivity: A reply to Barak Medina 709

Book Reviews

- Lena Holzer. Review of Flora Renz. Gender Recognition and the Law: Troubling Transgender Peoples' Engagement with Legal Regulation 723
- Ahmed Elbasyouny. Review of Francesco Biagi. Constitution-Building After the Arab Spring: A Comparative Perspective 729
- Nicoletta Perlo. Review of Julien Jeanneney. Une fièvre américaine: Choisir les juges de la Cour suprême (XVIIIe–XXIe) 732
- Lucas Lixinski. Review of Sofía Reza Milanta. La tutela ejecutiva en el sistema interamericano de Derechos Humanos: Siguiendo las huellas del cumplimiento 739
- Emil Krude. Review of Stephen H. Legomsky. Reimagining the American Union: The Case for Abolishing State Government 744