

CONTENTS

Introduction | 6

Dominik Čipera's Public Life, Wider Significance and Legacy | 8

Chapters from Dominik Čipera's Life | 10

Background and Education | 12

Banking Experience and Contacts with the Baťa Family | 14

Moving to Zlín and Family Life | 16

Co-author of the Baťa System | 18

Procurist and Second-in-Command of the Baťa Company | 20

Development of Zlín as an Industrial City | 22

The Death of Tomáš Baťa and Taking over the Management | 24

Greater Zlín | 27

The Ministry and the Protectorate | 30

Cultural Activities | 32

Support for the Resistance and Clandestine Activities | 34

End of the War and Postwar Accusations | 36

Exile after 1948 | 37

Working for Baťa Abroad | 38

Rehabilitation and Legacy | 39

The Life of Dominik Čipera's Family in the Villa in the Years 1942–1945 | 40

Housing of the Čipera Family before Construction of Their Villa in the Burešov District | 42

Dominik Čipera Villa | 44

Timeline | 46

Architect Vladimír Karfík | 50

Housing and Villa Construction within the Context of the Baťa Company in Zlín in the Interwar Period | 52

The Building of Interwar Zlín – A Garden City | 54

Baťa Housing Construction in Zlín | 56

Exhibitions of Modern Housing in the Interwar Period | 58

The Baťa International Housing Competition in 1935 | 59

Built Prototypes of Winning Projects:

Karfík-Type Single-Unit House | 60

Svedlund-Type Single-Unit House | 62

Benš-Jech-Type Two-Unit House | 63

Vítek-Type Two-Unit House | 64

Construction of Villas in Interwar Zlín | 65

Tomáš Baťa Villa | 68

Jan Antonín Baťa Villa | 70

Construction of Villas in Zlín until 1945: | 72

František Malota Villa | 73

Josef Hlavnička Villa | 74

Hugo Vavrečka Villa | 76

Baťa Company Housing Development after 1935 | 78

From the Dominik Čipera Villa to the Creative Center | 80

Timeline and Details of the Villa's Reconstruction | 82

The Villa before and after Reconstruction | 84